

The Man on the Sandbox

by L. Corwin

WEATHER.

THE backbone of the summer. Methinks is on the hummer. Its spinal column crumpled in defeat. And by the self-same token, We're glad that it was broken. Before we all went crazy with the heat.

The heat was quite infernal. Till equinoxes vernal. Appeared upon the scene and knocked it out. But, after next December, The heat we'll not remember. For, then we'll have the cold to kick about.

SMALL ENOUGH.

The man on the sandbox says he is not in accord with the movement to make the dollar smaller. If it were any smaller it would look like 20 cents.

The man with the yellow slicker wants to know if "No. No. Nanette" is a sequel to "Nay Nay, Pauline." All right, Abner, let's go.

TAKE 'EM OUT!

An official of the National League of Colored Baseball Clubs says that one of the reasons for canning a colored umpire was that he insisted it was against the rules to change pitchers in the seventh inning. The seventh being the stretch inning, he probably thought that the hurler ought to have a chance to win in the stretch.

The man on the sandbox says the Athletics are like a toy balloon. They blow up in the stretch.

"Egg on Block of Ice Cooked by Radio Waves." It must have been a cold storage egg.

How about a three-cornered match between the champion town crier of Great Britain, the champion hog caller of Illinois and the champion old rags and iron man for the championship of the world?

On second thought such a contest would not be complete without the umbrella man. And the tinware-to-mend champion.

The foe-man might also be entitled to a voice in this walkin' ringin' contest.

As we get it Fulton, Mo. doesn't believe in detour signs.

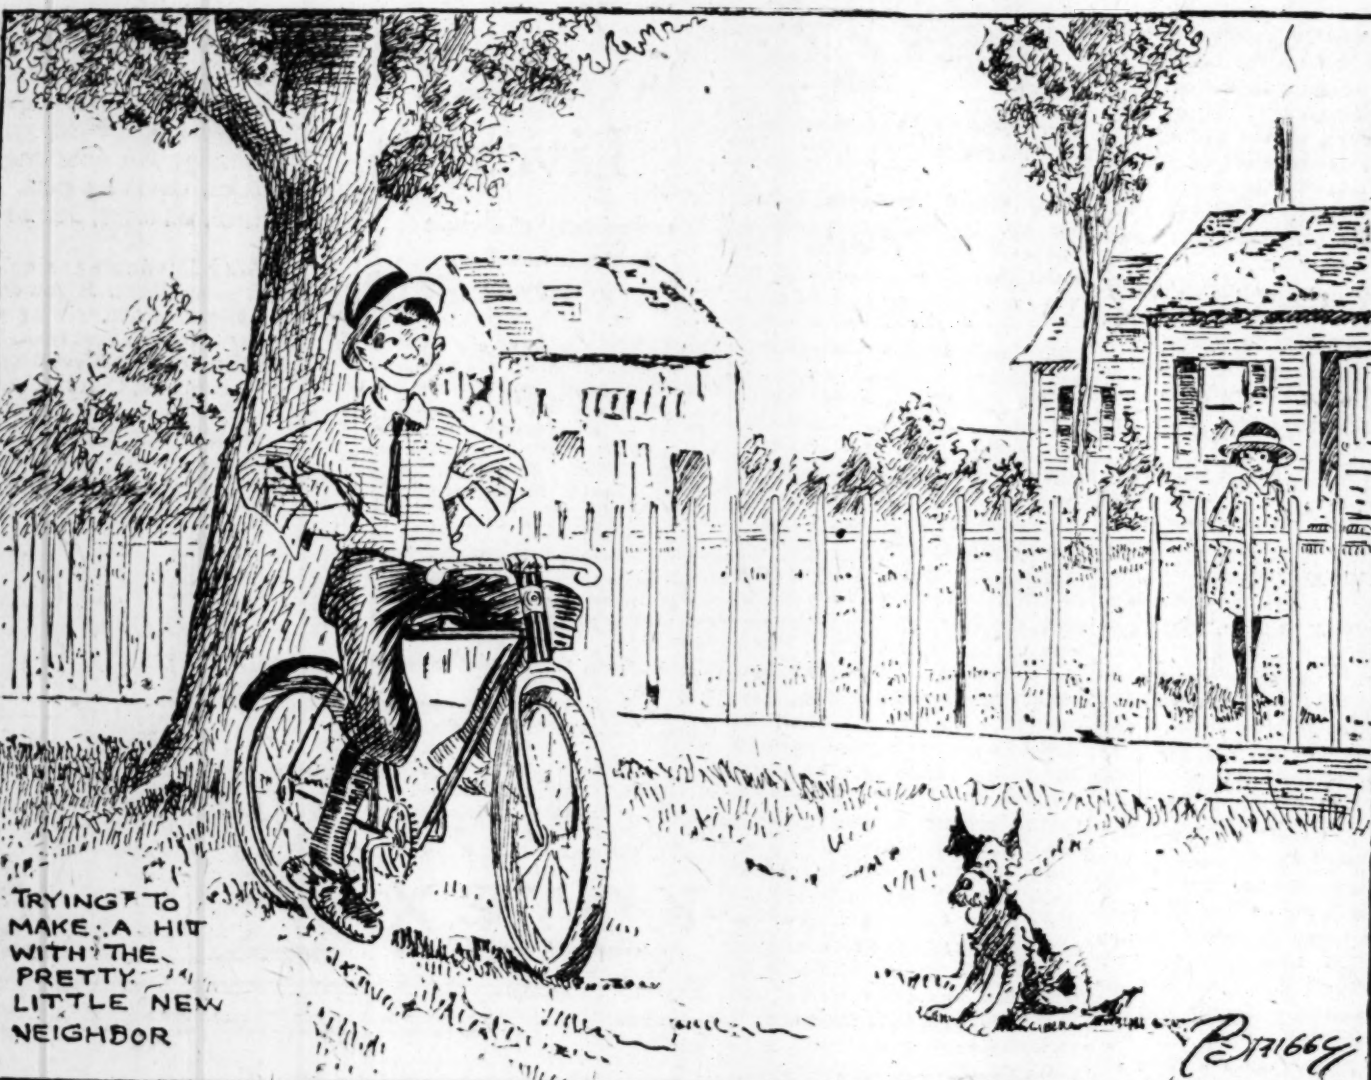

However, as a straight line is the shortest way between two given points we can't all be on the main stem.

It is said that the lively ball made base running a lost art. On the other hand the highball has given a decided impetus to rum running.

POLICE WILL NOT ABANDON THEIR POLICY OF RAIDING

Kortjohn Declares That "a Place Where Liquor Is Sold Ceases to Be a Home."

SUMMONED BEFORE THE GRAND JURY

Chief Gerk Interrogated by Inquisitors 4 Hours—Coroner Vitt May Be Questioned Today.

Police Commissioner Henry Kortjohn, an attorney, was summoned today to appear before the grand jury, which yesterday afternoon put Chief of Police Gerk and Detectives Kaiser through an extended questioning, as to methods and other activities.

Kortjohn conferred with the department heads this morning, presumably as to the matters into which the grand jury is inquiring, and as to the cases of four policemen who were indicted Wednesday on misdemeanor charges, growing out of three raids. After his talk with Gerk and Kaiser, Commissioner Kortjohn said:

"The police should not be going to abandon its policy of raiding so-called soft-drink parlors which are breeding places of crime. We shall not invade private homes, but we have been doing so. But places used for the illegal sale of liquor cease to have the status of private homes."

Gerk Before Jury 4 Hours. Chief Gerk, speaking on the same matter in the last few days, has said that the police were not hunting for "home raids," made for individual consumption or for hospitality, but would not permit the sale of liquor, whether in a residence or a place of business.

Gerk was before the grand jury for four hours yesterday afternoon, and Kaiser for a shorter time. President Orrick of the Police Board was summoned to appear, but was out of the city. Coroner Vitt, who has said that present police methods do not appear to him the most efficient in the handling of murder cases, is scheduled as a witness for this afternoon's session.

The grand jury, in its report to be filed some time before Oct. 8, is expected to discuss police methods.

Members of Grand Jury.

The members of the grand jury, including two alternates, are: Henry F. Timmerman, foreman, president of Timmerman Carpet Co.; Robert A. Baird, vice president Hanley & Kinella-Coffee and Spice Co.; Albert G. Blanke, president Blanke Real Estate Co.; Joseph R. Krey, vice president First National Bank; Max A. Davis, secretary Buettner Furniture Co.; Louis P. Delbel, secretary Anchor Grain Co.; Frederick J. Herkert, secretary Herkert & Meltrunk Co.; Frederick J. Krey, president Krey Packing Co.; William W. La Beaume, vice president Crane Insurance Co.; John Lees, manager Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co.; Joseph Mogler, moving picture theater proprietor; Gustav C. Tausig, assistant manager St. Louis Smelting and Refining Co.; Edward E. Scharff, alternate, president Scharff-Koken Manufacturing Co.; and Alden H. Little, alternate, president Little & Moore, investments.

MANY CHILDREN SEEK WORK IN STRIKE REGION

Pennsylvania Laws Prohibit Employment of Boys or Girls Under 16 Except in Emergency. By the Associated Press. WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 25. (AP)—Numerous boys and girls in Luzerne County have left school to take employment in factories during the period of idleness in the anthracite mines, say principals of the Wilkesbarre schools and those in nearby towns. One superintendent had 27 applications for working certificates in one day and 19 of the callers planned to get help and that the suspension in the mines may be a solution of the labor scarcity. The school laws forbid employment of any boy or girl under 16 except where actual necessity exists, and whether school officials will regard the suspension as an emergency calling for interruption of the school courses remains to be determined. They fear that if many releases are permitted most of the young people will remain at work after the mine trouble has ended. Industrial managers estimated that they can find places for several hundred girl workers.

CHICAGO-CHINESE IS SHOT TO DEATH IN KANSAS CITY

On Leong Tongman Had Expressed Fear for His Life—Three Men Were Seen to Run From Basement.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 25.—Lee Wing, a Chinese from Chicago, was fatally shot in the basement of a building housing the Mong Chong Kee Co., importers, at 711 East Twelfth street, early today. Wing was a member of the On Leong tong.

Three men were seen to flee from the building immediately after the shooting, according to witnesses told police.

Chin Dong Lip, manager of the importing company, said Wing entered the basement shortly before 12 o'clock alone. A few minutes after 12 three other Chinese entered. They were playing mah-jongg, according to the manager, when suddenly the four shots were heard. Lip's daughter said one man had his hand in a hip pocket. Wing was shot through the neck. The police found $209.95 in bills and cash in his clothing and a vanity case, evidently a woman's, containing a pound of jewelry, including gold pieces, bracelets, brooches, rings and other articles. A bill fold was found bearing the name of George Lee, 25 South Eighth street, St. Louis.

Toy Ijam, manager of King Joy Lok, identified the man as Wing. Jam said Wing had visited the King Joy Lok restaurant about three weeks ago, saying he belonged to the On Leong tong, and that "someone was running for him." He went back to Chicago, but returned here two days ago, Jam declared.

Five Sought After Girl's Murder. ASBURY PARK, N. J., Sept. 25.—Five men are being sought in the case of the murder of Miss Marie Nicolini, who was shot in a restaurant by a man who then nailed up the door so the girl might not crawl to the street to give an alarm before she died. The five men were seen in the restaurant a short time before the murder.

SAYS GAS BAGS DEFLATED BEFORE SHENANDOAH FELL

Chief Rigger Testifies He Knew "Ship Was Gone Then and There," Before Hull Broke Up.

"BAG NO. 8 UNDER UNUSUAL PRESSURE"

Half a Dozen Witnesses, However, Assert They Saw Nothing to Indicate Any Cells Were Ruptured

By The Associated Press. LAKEHURST, N. J., Sept. 25.—Conflicting testimony as to whether any of the helium gas cells gave up before the alga ship Shenandoah was given today before the naval court of inquiry here.

After a half dozen witnesses had testified that they neither saw nor heard anything indicating that any of the gas bags were ruptured during the flight with the storm, James H. Collins, a chief rigger charged with inspection of the bags, declared that when he awakened, while the ship was on her wild ascent, one of the gas cells was 38 per cent deflated, while another, next to it, was 100 per cent or more full.

"I knew the ship was gone then and there," he said, adding that he was before he heard any sounds indicating the breaking up of the hull. Collins said he had crossed and gone out onto the hull before he heard any sounds as of gas giving way, whereas the deflation of No. 9 gas bag was apparent when he awakened.

Under Unusual Pressure. Cross-questioned by Lieut. Commander C. E. Rosendahl, senior consulting officer of the Shenandoah, Collins said he heard no sound of escaping gas when he awakened.

"Did you see any rip or tear in the gas bag?" asked Rosendahl.

"No," Collins replied. "Did you consider No. 9 bag was under unusual pressure when you first observed it?" asked Captain Foley, the Judge Advocate.

"Absolutely," Collins replied.

Chief Rigger Arthur E. Carlson testified that, as far as he had knowledge, all of the gas bags were intact up to the time the ship broke up. Only one cell came under his personal observation, however. Carlson was one of the two men whose duty it was to watch the gas cells. He said he examined the cells when the ship was under pressure, and that there was no excessive pressure on the cells.

Questioned by Commander Rosendahl, Carlson said he heard farmers at the scene of the wreck say that the storm had blown down trees and leveled corn in the field. He testified also that he saw the electric lights in a nearby town go off. This was while the Shenandoah was fighting the storm.

While the ship was plunging downward, Carlson testified, he saw the effects of control wires running from the control car back to the rudders cutting through the frames at the keel. Sparks were flying from the points where the wires cut through.

MITCHELL HAS 800 POUNDS OF EVIDENCE

Aviation Colonel Departs From St. Louis for Inquiry at Washington.

Accompanied by his wife, who joined him here, Col. William Mitchell, fighting critic of America's air policy, left St. Louis at 4 p. m. yesterday for Washington, where he will appear Monday before President Coolidge's aviation committee.

The jaunty Colonel, his uniform laid aside for a business suit and a broad-brimmed Texas hat, arrived at 11:25 a. m. from Texas, where he was stationed as Eighth Corps air officer until his outspoken criticism of his superiors caused his removal from active duty. Mrs. Mitchell, who had been in Detroit on a visit, was waiting for him here and will be with him during his stay in Washington.

When Mitchell appears before the committee he will have at hand 800 pounds of documentary evidence with which to back up his views on aviation and strengthen his argument for a unified air service. Permission for him to ship the evidence from Texas was granted by the War Department.

Ten Officers of Army Air Service to Appear at Hearing. By The Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The War Department issued orders today to 10 officers of the army air service to appear before the President's air board at 10:30 a. m. Monday for examination. The orders are in compliance with a request by the board for certain air pilots whom it desires to question on their constructive suggestions they may have to offer.

Heading the list is Col. William Mitchell, former assistant army air chief and outspoken critic of the air services, who is en route to Washington. The board hopes to hear him Tuesday.

The others are Lieutenant-Colonel Benjamin D. Foulois, Maj. Thomas G. Lanphier, Maj. Walter R. Kliner, Maj. Byron G. James, Maj. Harvey B. S. Bakerwell, Maj. Ralph Royce, Maj. John H. Pile and Second Lieutenant John A. Austin.

ALTON MAN FALLS DEAD WHEN ATTENDING THEATER Allen A. Thompson, 42, Earlier in Day Had Rescued Fellow Worker From Injury.

Allen A. Thompson, 42 years old, of Alton, died unexpectedly of heart disease at 7 p. m. yesterday in the Grand Theater at Alton.

He had driven to the theater with his wife and two children. When he slumped down in his seat many who sat near him testified that he was dead.

Police were told that Thompson had failed to notice the incident. He was nervous since he had rescued a fellow workman from injury in a machine at the Alton Box Board and Paper Co.'s plant earlier in the day.

Home for Refugees Indorsed. By The Associated Press. GENEVA, Sept. 25.—The plan of Dr. Fridtjof Nansen to raise a $5,000,000 loan to repatriate 15,000 refugees Armenians and establish a national home for them has been indorsed by the Humanitarian Commission of the Assembly of the League of Nations. A resolution requests the council of the league to appoint a committee to ascertain the technical possibility of the undertaking. It is not likely that the resolution will encounter any opposition in the assembly.

TONG SEEKS U. S. PROTECTION

Hip Sing Organization Appeals to Federal Trade Commission.

By The Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Charging a conspiracy is on foot to interfere with its commercial operations, the Hip Sing tong has appealed to the Federal Trade Commission to investigate the activities of its rival, the On Leong tong, and the background of the tong warfare in general.

Through its attorneys and Louis Y. Yee of Cleveland, mentioned in the complaint as the Hip Sing tong's authorized representative, the Hip Sing tong gave its version of the underlying causes of the clashes between the two Chinese organizations, a recent revival of which resulted in several deaths throughout the East and Middle West.

The petitioning tong charges the On Leong tong, also known as the Chinese Merchants' Association, with headquarters in New York, with specific acts of conspiracy, intimidation and violence against nine Chinese merchants whose names were given, and approximately 100 others.

TWO MEN KIDNAP "PRISONER" Sheriff of Marion County Offers $25 Reward for "Tip."

By The Associated Press. HANNIBAL, Mo., Sept. 25.—Reward of $25 for a "tip" leading to the arrest of two men who late yesterday kidnapped Lester E. Hughes, convicted in a liquor case, from the Marion County Infirmary at Hannibal, has been offered by Sheriff C. L. Bender. Another reward of the same amount is offered for Hughes' apprehension.

Hughes was serving a $100 fine for concealing illicit liquor, and was removed last Saturday from the county jail, where doctors stated he had chronic appendicitis. The two men had visited Hughes yesterday morning and returned in the afternoon in the leading tent of the infirmary was absent, took Hughes to an automobile and sped away.

FAMILY HEIRLOOMS STOLEN Jewelry Taken From East St. Louis Home During Absence of Owner.

Three heirlooms which had been in the family for three generations were among the articles of jewelry stolen from the residence of George Nugent, a cattle dealer, of 639 North Tenth street, East St. Louis, while members of the family were away on an eight-weeks' vacation trip. The jewelry stolen was valued at $350 by Nugent, who discovered the loss yesterday when he returned. The heirlooms were two cameo brooches and a woman's gold watch.

Beauty Entrant Lost Was Herrick's. By The Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Manuel Herrick, former Representative from Oklahoma, has been exonerated of the charge of taking without permission a list of beauty contest entrants from the files of his employer, a private detective of this city. Herrick, who at one time figured in a breach of promise suit with the stenographer on Capitol Hill, was upheld in his claim that the property alleged to have been taken was his own.

INFORMER AGAINST GREENBERG LIQUOR RING MURDERED

David Bram Found Dead in Auto Following Collision—Three Men Had Leaped From Car.

By The Associated Press. NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Police Headquarters today received information that David Bram, alleged pickpocket, narcotic peddler and liquor runner, who was found dead in a sedan in the upper East Side this morning, furnished a "tip" that led to the raiding of the bootleggers' headquarters in the Knickerbocker and Longacre buildings in Times Square Wednesday by Federal agents.

Collision of the sedan and a taxicab resulted in discovery of Bram's body. The automobile was deserted by three occupants after the crash. Bram had been shot through the head. A Jewish prayer book and $1430 were found in his pockets.

The body was identified by the finger prints bureau at police headquarters as that of David Bram, alias A. Harris, said by police to be wanted in many cities for picking pockets, peddling narcotics and liquor running.

Bram is said to have been arrested at various times in Chicago, St. Louis, Pittsburgh and many other cities, and to have served time in the Federal Penitentiary at Leavenworth-Kan. A circular sent out by the Chief of Police of Kansas City, Mo., received at local headquarters, offered a large reward for Bram's arrest as a pickpocket, bootlegger and narcotic peddler.

Max Greenberg, one of the prisoners taken in raids in Times Square Wednesday, is "Big Head" Greenberg, former Egan gangster of St. Louis, United States Attorney Buckner said today.

It was Greenberg who was said to have been snatched from the streets of Chicago by the Egan gang after their leader, Constable William T. Egan, had been assassinated Oct. 1, 1921. The murder of Egan was said to have been the outcome of a long struggle for the leadership of the Egan gang, between Greenberg and Egan. So far as is known, Greenberg has not been in St. Louis since Egan died.

United States Attorney Buckner said words to his office shortly after Greenberg is under indictment in the Federal court in Philadelphia on a charge of possessing bonds stolen from the mails. Greenberg is an ex-convict having served two years of a 10-year term at Leavenworth for robbing an interstate shipment.

One Day's Business. The big bootleg ring smashed by the raids took orders for 4600 cases of Scotch whiskey worth $349,000 in a single day, deposited as much as $200,000 in one bank and received at least one letter of credit for $50,000, Buckner said.

Cable and signal codes, maps charting the routes used by liquor ships, bills for huge quantities of liquor labels and evidence that members of the rings have brokerage accounts running into substantial figures were found by the raiders.

Code of Currency. Thirteen men regarded as members of the ring were arrested in two raids on offices of a pseudo real estate firm in the theatrical district Wednesday. Fourteen others are sought.

With records of large liquor purchases in rum row, Buckner said.

It was Greenberg who was said to have been snatched from the streets of Chicago by the Egan gang after their leader, Constable William T. Egan, had been assassinated Oct. 1, 1921. The murder of Egan was said to have been the outcome of a long struggle for the leadership of the Egan gang, between Greenberg and Egan. So far as is known, Greenberg has not been in St. Louis since Egan died.

United States Attorney Buckner said words to his office shortly after Greenberg is under indictment in the Federal court in Philadelphia on a charge of possessing bonds stolen from the mails. Greenberg is an ex-convict having served two years of a 10-year term at Leavenworth for robbing an interstate shipment.

One Day's Business. The big bootleg ring smashed by the raids took orders for 4600 cases of Scotch whiskey worth $349,000 in a single day, deposited as much as $200,000 in one bank and received at least one letter of credit for $50,000, Buckner said.

Cable and signal codes, maps charting the routes used by liquor ships, bills for huge quantities of liquor labels and evidence that members of the rings have brokerage accounts running into substantial figures were found by the raiders.

Code of Currency. Thirteen men regarded as members of the ring were arrested in two raids on offices of a pseudo real estate firm in the theatrical district Wednesday. Fourteen others are sought.

With records of large liquor purchases in rum row, Buckner said.

By The Associated Press. NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Police Headquarters today received information that David Bram, alleged pickpocket, narcotic peddler and liquor runner, who was found dead in a sedan in the upper East Side this morning, furnished a "tip" that led to the raiding of the bootleggers' headquarters in the Knickerbocker and Longacre buildings in Times Square Wednesday by Federal agents.

Collision of the sedan and a taxicab resulted in discovery of Bram's body. The automobile was deserted by three occupants after the crash. Bram had been shot through the head. A Jewish prayer book and $1430 were found in his

GRAND-LEADER

In the Fall Exposition of Fashions the Misses' Store Introduces the New in Youthful Modes

Misses' Evening Gowns

$35 to $95

THE fragile beauty of dawn is caught in Gowns of pale tints showered with tear-shaped pearls or tiny blossoms of velvet—the luxury of a queen's robes is matched in Gowns with insets of silver lace and tracteries of brilliants—oriental color harmonies are woven in metal cloths on velvet—and each displays the youthful bodice Frock in an individual manner. Sizes 14 to 18 years.

Tailored Frocks

$25 to $65

Frocks, with clever manipulation of material, achieve a tailored smartness that is particularly becoming to the miss 14 to 18 years of age. Tweeds, reps, and heathers vie with satins that are simply fashioned. Delightfully new modes.

Dress Coats

$75 to $295

Abundant fur trimming applied in original ways on fabrics of an inherent beauty achieve a gorgeous effect that distinguishes these exclusive Dress Coats. Hand-woven, imported fabrics and rich pile fabrics are tailored to smart finish.

Girls' School Apparel Is Prominent in the Fall Exposition of Fashions

Girls' Frocks

One and two piece models fashioned like those for her older sister. Jersey and fancy plaids, striped weaves, and satins develop Frocks of a simplicity in design that is appealing. Sizes 10 to 16.

Girls' Coats

Boish in line are the new Coats, and they become the trig smartness favored by the growing girl. Germaine, chinchilla cloth, Derona, and tweed are the materials—many are fur trimmed. Sizes 8 to 14.

Youthful Millinery

In Three Special Groups

Misses' Collegiate Hats

SIMPLICITY is the keynote of the mode for the girl of college age or older, whether the brim is short and the Hat snug fitting or if it is large with brim gracefully framing her youthful face. Individual models are shown at prices from $7 to $15.

Junior Hats

Youth is emphasized in Hats of velour which are severe in absence of trimming, but graceful in the shaping of their brims. For the girl 10 to 15 years of age, $5.00 to $10.00.

Children's Hats

Pretty lines to please the little girl 6 to 10 years of age are effected with turn-up brims or dainty pokes. Felts, velours, velvets, and suede with leather trimming. Priced $2.95 to $5.00.

WANDERBILT LEFT WIDOW $7,000,000

Trust Fund of $5,000,000
Created for His Two Daughters.

PORTSMOUTH, R. I., Sept. 25.—A trust fund of $5,000,000 was created for his two daughters in the will of Reginald C. Vanderbilt, filed for probate here. The remainder of the estate, estimated to be worth $1,000,000, was left to Mrs. Gloria Vanderbilt, his widow. Mr. Vanderbilt died at his summer home here Sept. 4. His will will be probated by the Town Council of Portsmouth, Oct. 12.

To Mrs. Vanderbilt was bequeathed outright the New York mansion, Sandy Point Farm, the Portsmouth estate and $500,000. The will then directs that a $5,000,000 trust fund be created, to be divided equally between Mrs. Vanderbilt and her daughter, Mrs. C. Cushing Vanderbilt, his daughter by his first marriage, and one-year-old Gloria Vanderbilt.

The residue is to go to the widow. While estimates as to the value of the remainder of the estate were still to be a matter of conjecture, it was said by persons close to the family that it would approximate $2,000,000.

Vanderbilt's first wife was Miss Catherine Gabbard Nelson, daughter of Mrs. Frederick Nelson, from whom he was divorced in 1919. By his first wife, Vanderbilt had one daughter, Kathleen, born in 1904. Mrs. Gloria Morgan Vanderbilt, who was 18 years old when she and Vanderbilt were married two years ago, is the daughter of Henry Hays Morgan, American Consul-General in Argentina.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM AT MODERN TURKISH WEDDING Old Custom of Not Seeing Each Other Until After Marriage Is Dispensed With.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 25.—Constantinople has witnessed its first Turkish wedding with both the bride and bridegroom present. A generation ago even the engagement of two young persons was arranged entirely by their families and the bride and bridegroom never saw one another until after the wedding. The wedding was held in a clubhouse and was attended by some 200 persons, men and women. The bride wore a modish street dress and a thin veil bound about her head. Her face was entirely exposed. The priest, bearded and turbaned, alone was in keeping with the old tradition.

The priest asked the girl if she would accept the man as her husband under a contract that he would present her with the sum of 100 liras or Turkish pounds, and a guarantee that in case of divorce he would present her with another 100 liras and one phaser. The bride answered in the affirmative and the groom did likewise. A similar question, Rings were exchanged and the priest pronounced the couple man and wife. A reception followed in which both the men and women guests took part. The only incident harking back to the old type of social ceremony was the sprinkling of rose de Cologne on the hands of the guests.

Are You Guilty of this NOON-DAY SIN against Health?

Soiled hands may be a "social error" but an unclean mouth, septic, germ-laden, is more than a mere revolting thought, it is an enemy to health.

Thousands permit this sin against health by allowing particles of food to decompose in the mouth after lunch. This decomposition goes on ten hours out of twenty-four. Bad breath, "mouth acidity," tooth decay, bleeding gums and even more serious consequences such as infected tonsils are penalties of a mouth polluted from lunch to bedtime.

Don't allow your mouth to become the afternoon playground for countless germs when the simple use of the SANI-FOLD Noon Day Tooth Brush would instantly banish the deadly putrefaction that decomposes the teeth and impairs health. Keep a SANI-FOLD in your pocket or handbag. Use it faithfully after every meal.

SANI-FOLD is a full size toothbrush, folds to half length, convenient for pocket or handbag; some white fast-tied bristles; scientifically tufted and shaped; cup-shaped handle for rinsing mouth; transparent colors and ivory. 50c—ALL DRUGGISTS.

DETECTIVES AT WORLD SERIES
TO WATCH FOR PICKPOCKETSPittsburg and Washington Police Arrange to Guard Great Gathering of Fans.By the Associated Press.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 25.—An interchange of detectives to guard the great gatherings of fans who will see the world's series games has been arranged by the Pittsburg and Washington police forces.In addition to hundreds of traffic officers and patrolmen who will be on duty at Forbes Field here, Superintendent of Police EdwardBrophy has announced that the entire Pittsburg detective force, assisted by lieutenants from the national capital, will mingle with the crowds at the games. When the scene shifts to Washington, a detail of local detectives will be on hand to help the District of Columbia squad. The detectives will center their attention on pickpockets.
Federal prohibition officers are also active in preparation for the series crowds. F. C. Baird, probi-tion administrator for Western Pennsylvania, said his agents have already blocked many illicit beer channels into this city and that the beverage will be scarce during the games.BARNEY'S

AMERICAN AVIATORS TO STAY IN MOROCCO

Sheriffian Guards Provoked at Protest to State Department Against Part in War.

By COL. CHARLES SWEENEY,
Commander of the New Lafayette American Escadrille.

Special Case to the Post-Dispatch and the Chicago Daily News. Copyright, 1925.
O'NEZZAN, Morocco, Sept. 25.—
Sensation is the only word to describe the effect caused in the ranks of the American air squadron of the Sheriffian guard upon receipts of private telegrams advising that the American State Department contemplated taking action to force us to leave the Sultan's service or forfeit our citizenship.

Almost all of us were veterans of the French army before we entered the war, and as Megibney, a lawyer, points out, our status is no different now from what it was then.
We have not taken the oath of allegiance to the Sultan or in any way bound ourselves to his service. In fact, no papers have been signed on either side.

Question Decided in 1917.
This question was brought up before in connection with Thaw and myself in 1917, and the State Department at that time decided in our favor.

As may be supposed the State Department's proposed action has been discussed thoroughly by members of the Escadrille. The decision fell upon us like a thunderbolt arriving as we returned from a sortie to protect French advanced columns engaged in the difficult task of supplying one of the most advanced posts.

Observers who discussed the development were somewhat provoked at what was considered uncalled for interference with their liberty of action, and finally unanimous decision was reached to make official representations of protest through the diplomatic and consular agencies.

Plans to Continue Work.

We will allow nothing to cause us to stop the work we have started. In fact we all feel keener than we did when he left Paris. We know that this struggle, coming from the European theatre in Turkey and the rising tide of revolution in India, Egypt, Mesopotamia and Syria, not to speak of the extreme Orient, is one of the future of the Christian civilization given the world by the white race is vitally menaced.

We propose to go our bit to preserve for future generations the culture we received from our ancestors.

Emblems Painted on Planes.

O'NEZZAN, Morocco, Sept. 24.—
A charging black bull buffalo, painted in an orange circle on their planes is the emblem of the American aviators serving the Moroccan campaign. The emblem was designed by two of the American fliers, Captain Lansing C. Holden and Lieutenant Cousins, both well known in the younger America air circles of Paris. Their work with the paint brush on the fuselage of their own machines are masterpieces which have evoked the admiration of the natives.

Other members of the sheriffian squadron, are not so expert in painting as Holden and Cousins and they did not succeed so well in depicting the charging bison.
The animal they brushed up was anything but a true likeness of the former king of the Western plains in the United States. Some of the native soldiers thought that the beast painted on Captain James ("Red") Mustaine's plane was a sea lion.

Two Slain, 160 Hurt, in Riot.

By the Associated Press.
DELHI, India, Sept. 25.—Two persons were killed yesterday in a riot between Hindus and Moslems on the occasion of a religious festival at Allahabad, 82 miles southeast of Delhi. About 160 persons were injured, four of them being in a critical condition. One report says that police had to fire into the mob.

Slender—But Rite-Wate Fat Reducer Will

Rite-Wate FAT REDUCER

Most fat people wish they were slender.
But, of course, all the wishing one can do will never take off fat. Rite-Wate Fat Reducer, a harmless tablet, made according to a high-class doctor's prescription, has reduced other fat people from 10 to 50 pounds and will do the same for you, if you will only give it a trial.

With Rite-Wate, you do not need to indulge in fatiguing exercises, dieting or massage. In fact, you have to do to lose your excess weight, is to take Rite-Wate according to directions and the fat will vanish, leaving you a slender figure, and improving the general tone of your body.

Guaranteed absolutely harmless—No "Thins" or "Moxes" refunded if Rite-Wate does not reduce you.

JUVENILE REDS HOLD CONGRESS

Children From Many Countries Organized Under Name "Pioneers."

Chicago Daily News. Copyright 1932.

MOSCOW, Sept. 25.—Juvenile
communists, 15 and 14 years old,
from Sweden, Norway, Germany, Austria, Holland and Finland, as well as the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, are holding their
first international congress here,
continuing over a week. The children are organized under the name
of "Pioneers," similar to the Boy Scouts and Campfire Girls of other countries. They comprise the youngest group of the communist organization.

A proclamation outlining the
aims of the congress says it will play a great role in the revolutionary organization, through education
of the children along communist
rather than bourgeois lines. "It is necessary," it says, "to fight re-
gious prejudices and abolish fear
of revolutions, and through the pioneer movement build the foundations for future class unity among
the proletarians of the whole world." The whole movement is only starting in Western Europe,

but in Russia there are more than 1,500,000 Pioneers.

PLAYWRIGHT TO PAY $40,000

Divorce Action Against Sari Fedak, Actress, Is Settled.

VIENNA, Sept. 25.—Franz Molnar, the playwright and Sari Fedak, his actress wife, have settled their divorce action out of court. Molnar has withdrawn all of the charges he had made against Sari.
He has also agreed to pay Sari $20,000, giving her $15,000 immediately and the remainder within four years.

DELIBERATIONS OVER A DUEL

Jury of Honor Proposed in Fascist
Quarrel.

MILAN, Italy, Sept. 25.—Fausto
Salvatori and Alessandro Parisi,
named by Roberto Farinacci, secretary of the Fascist party, as his seconds, when he accepted the challenge to a duel sent him by Signors Galbiati and Tarabella,
have reversed the decision of their principal and decided to refuse the challenge.

They explained that if Farinacci
gave any offense to his challengers,
who were recently expelled from
the Fascist party, of whose anti-Masonic organization they were members, he did so in his official capacity as secretary of the party,
and, therefore, is not called upon
to satisfy personal grievances. The challengers then proposed that a jury of honor be appointed to settle the question, but Farinacci's
seconds refused this also. Galbiati
and Tarabella thereupon reserved
the right to nominate a jury of their own.

JUVENILE REDS HOLD CONGRESS

Children From Many Countries Organized Under Name "Pioneers."

Chicago Daily News. Copyright 1932.

MOSCOW, Sept. 25.—Juvenile
communists, 15 and 14 years old,
from Sweden, Norway, Germany,
Austria, Holland and Finland, as
well as the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, are holding their
first international congress here,
continuing over a week. The children are organized under the name
of "Pioneers," similar to the Boy Scouts and Campfire Girls of other

organization.

A proclamation outlining the
aims of the congress says it will
play a great role in the revolutionary organization, through education
of the children along communist
rather than bourgeois lines. "It is necessary," it says, "to fight re-
gious prejudices and abolish fear
of revolutions, and through the pioneer movement build the foundations for future class unity among
the proletarians of the whole
world." The whole movement is

only starting in Western Europe,
but in Russia there are more than 1,500,000 Pioneers.

DELIBERATIONS OVER A DUEL

Jury of Honor Proposed in Fascist
Quarrel.

MILAN, Italy, Sept. 25.—Fausto
Salvatori and Alessandro Parisi,
named by Roberto Farinacci, secretary of the Fascist party, as his
seconds, when he accepted the
Signors Galbiati and Tarabella,
have reversed the decision of their
principal and decided to refuse the
challenge.

They explained that if Farinacci
gave any offense to his challengers,
who were recently expelled from
the Fascist party, of whose anti-
Masonic organization they were
members, he did so in his official
capacity as secretary of the party,
and, therefore, is not called upon
to satisfy personal grievances. The
challengers then proposed that a
jury of honor be appointed to settle the question, but Farinacci's
seconds refused this also. Galbiati
and Tarabella thereupon reserved
the right to nominate a jury of
their own.

CROKER WILL FIGHT IS NEAR CONCLUSION

Involves Legality of Titles to Land at Palm Beach, Fla., Now Valued at $15,000,000.

By the Associated Press. JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 24.—Invoking the legality of the ownership of certain properties situated on the coast at Palm Beach, the famous Croker will case, one of the most involved and extended in the annals of the Florida courts, is expected to be brought to a conclusion early this fall.

The suit was instituted by the heirs of the late Richard Croker, former Tammany Hall chief, to have declared null and void the deeds of conveyance of the properties to Bula Croker, second wife of the wealthy political leader. They contended that they should be declared as owners of the properties with Mrs. Croker, who would then share a dowry right as widow.

Valued at $15,000,000.

Under a ruling handed down by Federal Judge Lake Jones, the defendants have until Oct. 1 to file a reply to the decision of Federal Judge Rhydon M. Call, declaring their motion to quash the bill of complaint.

The complainants, Howard Croker, Ethel Croker White, Richard Croker Jr., all citizens of New York State, and Florence Croker Morris, a British subject, set out in their bill of complaint that they are entitled as heirs to properties in the vicinity of Palm Beach which have been appraised at approximately $15,000,000. These were acquired by the political leader in two deals, the first on Oct. 24, 1916, and the second on July 31, 1917.

Special Deeds Used.

Recital of transactions between Richard Croker and his wife and Alice Egleston involving the first tract is contained in the complaint. Croker and his wife attempted to transfer the land to her on Nov. 7, 1917, and it was subsequently re-conveyed to them, the complaint set out. It was declared further in the bill that there was no consideration to the transactions.

A portion of the property was conveyed by three special deeds to Mrs. Bula Croker. Croker and his second wife subsequently entered into a contract with J. B. McDonald, authorizing him as agent to sell part of the properties and turn the proceeds over to Mrs. Croker. The complaint sets forth that none of the properties was sold under this contract, however.

Option of Purchase Given.

In the contract with McDonald, Croker gave him the option of purchasing the property if no sale for it should develop. After the death of Croker, McDonald and the Palm Beach Estates are said to have attempted to exercise that option by depositing a sum of money in the registry of the Palm Beach County Circuit Court.

The bill of complaint asks that Richard Croker be declared to have been the head of a family residing in Florida at the time of his death and that the land he devised the homestead of Croker. It asks that the deeds to and from Alice Egleston be declared null and void, and that the children of Croker, together with his widow, be declared the heirs of the estate.

Widow Claims Title Valid.

Bula Croker moved that the complaint be dismissed in a document filed Jan. 27. The other defendants presented like motions on Feb. 4, at which time they also sought to strike out certain allegations in the bill. In her motion to dismiss the bill, Mrs. Croker declared that the facts set out in it are insufficient to justify the relief asked by the complainants, and that she holds valid title to the lands.

The two motions to dismiss the complaint were denied a decision by Judge Call, dated July 27.

STREET CAR ADVERTISING IN WAR AGAINST CHICAGO CRIME

"You Can't Win," Says Poster Depicting Youth Fleeting From Scene of Theft.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—The psychology of street car advertising has been added to the Chicago methods of combating crime conditions.

"You Can't Win" is the warning legend of striking cartoon giving wide display in street car and elevated trains. Its purpose is to give pause to the potential criminals and point the moral that hope of permanent escape from consequences is futile.

The poster is one in a series planned by law enforcement authorities. It depicts two youths in a speeding automobile, apparently fleeing the scene of a theft. Across their path looms the ghostly shadow of an armed motorcycle policeman.

Newspaper advertising copy has been planned to suggest the street car ads in the campaign, which Morgan & Collins, chief of police, has designed to be one of education and prevention. Its objective, he has announced, also are hopeful that the lesson of the car advertisement and newspaper display type may also act as a deterrent upon the more hardened criminals.

Our Annual Fall Music Educational Campaign

Starts Saturday, September 26

On Saturday morning, September 26, at 8 O'clock, we will start our Annual Fall Music Educational Campaign. This is a real opportunity for parents to start giving their children a worth-while musical education without cost. This campaign will last only one month, expiring Monday, Oct. 26.

FREE Music Lessons

For Your Child With the Purchase of Any Piano

Our educational department has for years been assisting parents in giving their children a start towards a musical education by free assistance and advice that puts the child on the right track. Arrangements just made now enable us to go much further. This we are doing during our Annual Fall Music Educational Campaign which starts Saturday, September 26 and ends Monday, October 26.

To every purchaser of a Piano or Player at our store during this month we will present a certificate good for six months' Free Musical Instruction for one child. This certificate may be used either with an instructor named by us or with the instructor now giving musical instruction to that child. There are competent first-class instructors in every section of St. Louis and suburbs prepared to give this six months' course, instructors whom we can highly recommend.

FREE MUSIC ROLLS

We will give FREE to any purchaser of a Player during Fall Music Educational Month, who does not want to accept the offer of FREE Music Lessons for their child, fifty (50) Educational and Classical Music Rolls, a wonderful collection that will be instructive and add greatly to the enjoyment of music in any home.

This Is a Marvelous Opportunity to Start Your Child Right

CROSS CONVENTION MEETING PLACES CHANGED

Will Be in Scottish Rite Cathedral Instead of at Odeon.
Seven mass meetings of the American Red Cross national convention here next month will be in the Scottish Rite Cathedral. Instead of the Odeon, as previously announced. Permission to use the Cathedral was given by the Scottish Rite Cathedral Association because of the fact that the American Red Cross is the relief agency of the U.
S. Government, and because the convention will bring to St. Louis men and women from all parts of the country engaged in the big national and international program of the Red Cross.

The convention opens on Oct. 12,
with a mass meeting at 10 a. m.
in the Cathedral, and there will be other mass meetings on the mornings of Oct. 13, 14 and 15, and three evening meetings in the Cathedral. Round-table conferences for delegates and department heads will be held every afternoon at the Hotel Statler, City Club and Scruggs-Vandervoort-Barney music hall.
More than 1000 delegates are expected at the convention. It was stated this morning by William M.
Baxter Jr., of the Midwestern branch office of the Red Cross, which is located here. An appeal to men and women who worked with the Red Cross in any capacity during the war was made this morning by Mrs. Frank V. Ham-mar, who is chairman of the convention committees. She urged them to attend the meetings and to make the convention a success, as it is the first time a Red Cross convention has ever been held in St.

Louis and only the second time anywhere except Washington, D. C.

ADVERTISEMENTS
Peeling the Skin Is Better Than Bleaching
Ever since the discovery that ordinary mercolized wax would absorb and remove a discolored or blemished complexion, its use by ladies as a substitute for bleaching creams has grown rapidly. A perfect complexion can be maintained indefinitely if this remarkable substance is used. Its beneficial cleansing, clearing and preservative action is quickly apparent, and ladies who have been paying high prices for "special bleach" from beauty specialists, soon recognize that mercolized wax out-ranks them all. It can be obtained at all druggists, who have it in the original one-ounce packages. The favorite way of using it is to apply it like cold cream, before retiring, washing it off in the morning.

DRUG CLERK BEATEN AND ROBBED OF $350

Pharmacy at Sarah and McPherson Looted of Cash by Three Negroes.

Three negroes entered the pharmacy of Walter S. McCormack, Sarah street and McPherson avenue, at 7:30 a. m. today as the clerk, Gus Berger, was transferring the money from a safe to a cash register.

One of the negroes announced he wanted to buy some car tokens, and then struck Berger on the head with a revolver. The other negroes joined in the assault, and Berger lost consciousness. He was gagged with paper, his hands and feet were tied with twine, and he was kicked in the abdomen several times.

The negroes escaped with between $250 and $400 from the safe and register. Berger was untied later by customers, and removed to his home, 4200 McPherson avenue, for medical treatment. He is 30 years old.

Today was the fifth time in five years that the McCormack store has been visited by robbers or burglars.

Grocer's Skull Fractured by Negro Who Escaped With $12.
A negro who entered the grocery store of Joseph Newman, 1029 High street, at 4:45 p. m. yesterday, asked for cakes and struck Newman on the head with an automobile spring leaf, wrapped in newspaper, as Newman stooped to serve him. The negro escaped with $12, leaving the weapon behind.

Newman was treated by a neighborhood physician, but his condition grew worse and at 9:30 o'clock last night he was taken in an ambulance to city hospital, suffering from a fractured skull. He is 38 years old.

RODGERS ENDORSES AIR

BOARD NAMED BY COOLIDGE

Defends Naval Flight and Denies He Was Compelled to Go. Receives Medals in San Francisco. By the Associated Press. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 25.—Emphatic endorsement of an advisory board such as that called by President Coolidge, to operate in conjunction with the army and navy departments for the development of the air service was voiced by Commander John Rodgers at a banquet tendered to him and the crew of the seaplane P-9 number one last night, the air board which Commander Rodgers recommended would not have the breadth of power of that advised by Col. William Mitchell.

Commander Rodgers staunchly defended the Navy Department in its conduct of the attempted San Francisco-Hawailian seaplane flight and in general in its handling of naval air affairs. He denied that he or any of his men had been "compelled against their wills and better judgment" to attempt the non-stop flight to the Hawaiian Islands. "The men in the naval air service as in other branches do not need pushing ahead so much as they need holding back," declared Commander Rodgers.

Another day of entertainment was arranged for the fliers today after which Commander Rodgers and Lieut. Connell will proceed to Washington. The men received gifts and medals at the city hall yesterday after a parade up Market street following their disembarkation from the battleship Idaho.

HOWARD STILL A CAPTIVE

No Direct News Since Aug. 20. From American Held by Manchurians. Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch and the Chicago Daily News. Tientsin, Sept. 25.—Rogers Green, director of the Rockefeller Institute in Peking, has returned from Fuchinhien, where he has been trying to effect the release of Dr. Harvey J. Howard of the Rockefeller Hospital here from Manchurian bondage. Green expresses the hope of an early release of Dr. Howard, who was captured July 20.

Capt. Constant, American assistant military attaché, is remaining in Fuchinhien. The original bandit leader was slain by a comrade and new negotiations have been necessitated. No direct word has been received from Dr. Howard since Aug. 15, and the failure to transmit warm clothing and food is arousing apprehension on account of the growing cold. Two thousand Chinese troops are participating in the rescue efforts, but with no results. The American attaché here reports that a new rescue expedition is being formed.

3 RETURNED TO BOONVILLE

Young Men Were Arrested in St. Louis for Violating Paroles. Three former inmates of the Boonville Reformatory, arrested in St. Louis for violation of their paroles, were taken back to Boonville today by Maj. Krause of that institution. They were Ralph Hendrix, Leon McGee and John Piper. Piper, who is 29 years old, served three months of a five-year sentence for highway robbery.

"Engineer-Evangelist" Coming. The Rev. M. E. Lewis of Terra Haute, who is known as the "Engineer-Evangelist," has accepted the pastorate of the Lighthouse Mission, Tower Grove and Norfolk avenues, and will begin his new duties with a three-weeks evangelistic campaign, starting Sunday. Services will be held each night, except Saturday during the campaign.

ONE KILLED, 50 HURT IN TRAIN WRECK

Florida-St. Louis Flyer Hits Southbound Train Near Chattanooga.

By the Associated Press.
CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept.
25.—Members of the train crew injured in the wreck of the Dixie Flyer, northbound, and the Dixie Express, southbound, at Worley, Tenn., 10 miles south of this city yesterday afternoon, were reported as improving today.

The head-on collision, said to have resulted from the crew of the southbound train failing to obey orders to pass the flyer at Chickamauga, left a toll of one dead and 50 injured, Mrs. H. C. Byers of Cloquet, Minn., dying shortly after reaching the hospital.

The wreck occurred on the Nashville, Chattanooga & St.
Louis. Both trains are Florida-St.
Louis trains of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad.

The trains were making about 25 miles an hour when they sighted each other.

The southbound engine in going over the embankment carried with it the coal tender and express car,
which it wrenched from the tracks.
The mail car, directly behind the express car, did not leave the track, but was ripped so that one-half of it swung open. The first passenger coach, directly behind it, was cracked open at the front.

The northbound engine went half way down the embankment and lay on its back. It carried with it the coal car and also pulled the mail car off the track.

Mrs. Byers' husband is superintendent of the rail tie-and post-yard of the St. Louis Mercantile Co.

WOMEN CONDEMN DEATH PENALTY IN ROBBERY CASE

Texas Protest Against Sentence Imposed by Jury on Man, 21 Years Old.

By the Associated Press.
DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 25.—Vigorous protest against the imposing of the death penalty here against J. L. Dalley, 21 years old, convicted of robbery with firearms, was made yesterday by the Dallas Housewives' League. A committee was appointed to draft resolutions condemning action of the jury.

Dalley pleaded guilty to accompanying G. A. Penniman of Dallas, forcing him and his young woman companion to drive to the outskirts of the city and there robbing them.
During the robbery Penniman was seriously shot. Dalley declaring the shooting was accidental. He testified he was insane at the time of the offense.

Dalley is believed to be the youngest defendant ever given the death penalty in Dallas County.
Judge C. A. Pippen, who tried the case, said he knew of no other highway robbery case in the country in which the defendant had ever been given the extreme penalty.

CITIZEN CAPTURES BURGLAR SURPRISED AT WORK IN HOME

Harry Huber Guards Intruder In Bathroom at 4636 Page Until Police Arrive.

Harry Huber, 4636 Page boue-vard, caught a burglar last night.
When Huber and his family left the house in the evening, all lights were out, but when they came home, one light was lit. Huber found a strange man in a bedroom and pursued him into a bathroom,
where the man barred the door.
Keeping Huber off and himself in Huber guarded the door and telephoned the police.

The stranger was persuaded by policemen to come out of the bathroom, in which a bundle of clothes valued at $156 and $18 had been abandoned. He identified himself as Frank Tomick, 46 years old, of 1616 Leonard avenue.

CHANGES IN ZONING
BILL PROPOSED REALTY EXCHANGE
Thirty-seven Amendments
to Ordinance as Drafted Requested of City Commission.
Question of Compensation
for Property Owners
Mentioned Pending
Report of Lawyers.
Thirty-seven changes in the city zoning ordinance requested of the City Commission by the zoning committee of the Real Estate Exchange.
The requested changes are in the ordinance, and relates to the question of compensation for property owners under legal investigation.
The Exchange Committee obtained opinion from former Judge
C. J. Caulfield, to the effect that the zoning measure would be upheld by the courts unless it provided for compensation for other lawyers are now giving opinions on the same.
The Proposed Changes
In the order in which they are presented, and paragraphs of the ordinance, as tentatively drafted, the proposed changes are:
Amending the definition of
"garage," so that garages in apartment hotels and apartment houses, or ground floor, ten-ment houses, would not be classed as "garages."
Amending the definition of
"corner lot" to mean a lot of more than 100 feet frontage on two intersecting streets.
Amplifying provision for school buildings in residence districts.
Including private schools as well
as public and church schools.
Residence District Provision Amending residence district provisions to prohibit nursery green houses for commercial purposes as an accessory building to a dwelling.
In multiple dwelling (apartment)
district, increasing size of balcony, sign or bulletin board permitted from 20 to 25 square feet.
Amending multiple dwelling provisions to permit hotels to display signs on exteriors.
In commercial district, to permit distributing blanks, ice cream, ice storage houses, laundry machine shops and warehouses.
In commercial districts, to allow, to remove the exclusion of any manufacture of products incidental to the conduct of a retail business conducted on premises. The committee
"A factory would be as desirable in a commercial district as in some industrial districts, for instance, Washington avenue on Eighteenth street." The amendment proposed would leave discretionary power to the Board of Adjustment.
Providing that a building designed for a definite purpose,
being used for that purpose,

CHANGES IN ZONING BILL PROPOSED BY REALTY EXCHANGE

Thirty-Seven Amendments
to Ordinance as Drafted Requested of City Commission.

HAVE TO DO WITH DETAILS OF MEASURE

for Property Owners Not Mentioned Pending Report of Lawyers.

Thirty-seven changes in the proposed city zoning ordinance have been requested of the City Zoning Commission by the real estate exchange.

The requested changes are in details of the ordinance, and none of them relate to the question of compensation for property owners. The matter which the committee still has under legal investigation. The exchange committee obtained an opinion from former Judge Henry H. Caldwell, to the effect that a zoning measure would not be upheld by the courts unless it should provide for compensation. For other lawyers are now preparing opinions on the same matter.

The Proposed Changes. In the order in which they apply sections and paragraphs of the ordinance, as tentatively drafted by the commission, the proposed changes are:

Amending the definition of public places, so that garages in fireproof hotels and apartments, in basement or ground floor, for use of tenants, would not be classed as public places.

CAILLAUX'S OFFER DISAPPOINTS U. S. DEBT COMMISSION

Under - Secretary Winston Says It Was Not Official,
but French Minister Says
It Was.

ONE REPORT IS OF FIVE BILLION OFFER

This Would Mean Cancellation of Interest From This Date, With 62 Years to Pay.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The American viewpoint was given to the French Debt Mission today in a meeting at the Treasury between the negotiators of the two nations.

Today's joint session was called after the President had met with his Cabinet in the regular Friday conference. Before the French and American delegates gathered around the conference table, separate meetings were held by the two groups.

The separate meetings were held in the same section of the Treasury Building, only one room dividing the two missions. While these meetings were in progress, experts and advisers of the two groups were kept busy running back and forth between them.

Hardly more than 10 minutes was required for the second joint conference.

PARIS PRESS SAYS PAYMENTS DEPEND ON REPARATIONS

Regret Expressed That America Regards Funding
Purely a Business Matter, Devoid of Sentiment.

Special Cable to Post-Dispatch and New York World.

PARIS, Sept. 25.—The American Debt Commission and the people of the United States of France's resolve to pay her debts, was the opinion expressed here after the first dispatches arrived from Washington announcing that the French delegation had made contact with the American negotiators.

The satisfaction that American doubts on that score have been dispelled is tempered, however, by bitter reflections on the insistence of America on treating French war debts as a mere business matter, devoid of sentiment.

All the powerful arguments previously produced to prove that France is unable to pay all her obligations are being marshaled. One principle announced by the entire press of Paris is that France cannot pay more than she receives from Germany.

No settlement ignoring this would be equitable," declares Le Temps. It is pointed out that America's chief reason, apparently, in persuading the allies to accept the Dawes plan was to give them resources with which to reimburse the United States. America must, therefore, realize, according to Paris spokesmen, that any settlement between France and America must be revised eventually to correspond to the balance of payments to France and the allies.

Lack of Psychology and Logic. Much attention is given to an article by the political writer Jacques Bainville of the question.

"How is it possible," he asks, "to conceive of France accepting a burden that would compel the children of the present generation to pay annuities to America, explaining to their children, 'You must do without this and that, so that we may have enough money to pay our good friends, the Americans.'"

Both the Americans and the British are accused of lack of psychology and even logic. He recalls the whittling down of the German indemnity and the cries of horror raised in America and England at the "inhumanity and impossibility of compelling two or three generations of Germans to labor and sweat in order to pay a debt the origin of which they have forgotten."

Bainville also observes that even the Dawes plan does not fix the number of annuities and reminds Washington of the speech in the Chamber of Deputies of former Premier Herriot admitting the impossibility of counting more than 40 years for the plan, whereas the amount of France's indebtedness is to be fixed and she is to be compelled to pay during 62 years. Thus Germany would be free while France would still have 22 more annuities to pay.

Bainville concludes by suggesting that the French should insist that the body will be determined by

VIRGINIA BAPTISTS CHIEF FOES OF ANTIEVOLUTION AND BIBLE READING BILLS

Patriotic Welfare Commission, Including Ku Klux Klan, Waging Active Campaign for Passage of the Legislation.

The author of this article, and others to follow, has just completed a tour of Southern States to find out how widespread is the opposition to the teaching of the theory of evolution and what popular demand there is for legislation similar to that passed in Tennessee and which resulted in the Scopes trial. The injection of a religious issue into politics this winter is forecast.

The second article follows: By GEORGE N. COAD. Virginia is unique in regard to the antievolution situation. There is an organization not elsewhere especially interested in the matter is the chief workers for an antievolution law an elite Baptist church, which takes the lead in all other Southern states. In harassing the evolutionists, it is in the Old Dominion the chief opponent of the agitators.

The Junior Order of United American Mechanics passed from its fight against Christopher Columbus into the battle against Darwin. Last fall it discovered that the Italians of Richmond were about to erect a monument to Columbus as the discoverer of America. It does not appear that they wished to honor him for any other reason, not for his being a Catholic, nor simply for his discovery of this continent.

The Junior Order, however, saw in the movement an attempt to destroy the patriotism of the State. They opposed it on the ground that Columbus was not an American nor a Protestant and succeeded in depriving Columbus of another monument.

While the patriotic zeal they had endeavored in the war on Columbus was still afire, the Junior Order passed over the evolution. It allied itself with the Southern States League, the Patriotic Order, the Daughters of America, the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

These orders formed the Patriotic Welfare Commission with the announced object of putting through a bill making the reading of the Bible compulsory in the public schools and a bill making it illegal to teach the theory of evolution as a science. The campaign to arouse the interest of the State was begun at once and has been carried forward by pamphlets and tracts.

According to its own figures, the Patriotic Welfare Commission represents 150,000 voters of Virginia. The figures are questioned by only a few. It is admitted by most Virginians that the organizations have a great numerical strength. Most among its most respected organizations. They have existed so long and sent into the life of the state so many men, that there is no prejudice against them as is found against colleges in certain states. Recently the colleges have contributed to a great degree in the simplification of the state government and have given some of their best men to business organizations.

Attitude of Press. The press campaign against the antievolutionists is based upon the assertion that one can be an evolutionist and still a Christian.

"We challenge any one," said Dr. Freeman, "to say that we believe God selected evolution for his method of creating life, are not as good Christians as those who reject the theory."

By this campaign Freeman hopes to disarm the enemy, who operates almost entirely on the assumption that evolution destroys Christian belief.

Dr. R. H. Pitt, a retired Baptist minister and now editor of the Religious Herald of Richmond, is conducting a similar campaign in his journal.

"We do not see the necessity of taking the Bible as a manual in biology, geology and anthropology," said Pitt. "We believe the Bible inspired and we accept it as true, but we do not understand it to be an exact explanation of God's method."

"And we oppose the proposed laws, that for the compulsory reading of the Bible and for prohibiting the teaching of evolution, on the ground that they would be an infringement of the rights guaranteed by our Virginia constitution."

"We have still another reason for fighting this movement. In our opinion it would link church and state. We Baptists of Virginia have not forgotten what happened to us when this union was last in effect. We do not want it again."

May Split Church. Dr. Pitt is striving to put the Baptist convention of the state on record as opposed to the bills. To this end he is now engaged in seeking to have the district divisions of the church adopt a resolution condemning them. He has succeeded already in having the powerful Dover district, in which is Richmond, go on record against the bills.

Some fear that the religious issue may split the Baptist church in Virginia but most laymen and ministers ridicule the suggestion. These men believe that the "bill associations" will follow the lead of the cities and they think that the urban delegates will have no trouble in the fall convention.

In Virginia, then, the situation appears to be this:

1. A strong movement, based on religious zeal and patriotism, well organized, to put through an antievolution bill.

FRENCH BEGIN OFFENSIVE AGAINST DRUSE TRIBESMEN

Rebels in Syria Reported to Be Dispersing in All Directions Since Relief of Saida.

BAGDAD, Iraq, Sept. 25.—Members of a convoy arriving here from Damascus state that the French have begun a big offensive against the rebel Druse tribesmen of Syria, employing 20,000 troops, 44 tanks, 32 armored cars and 140 airplanes.

By the Associated Press. DAMASCUS, Syria, Sept. 25.—The rebel Druse tribesmen are reported to be dispersing in all directions and the opinion is generally held that Gen. Gamelin's successful relief of the French garrison at Saida has ended the uprising which menaced French influence in the mandated territory of Syria.

Gen. Sarrahl, the High Commissioner, yesterday received a number of tribal chiefs who assured him of their fidelity to the French regime.

HAWES TO URGE U. S. DIRECTOR OF TRANSPORTATION

Congressman Tells of Bill He Is Drafting to Unite Highway-Waterway Rail and Aeronautic Control.

ADDRESSES SCHOOL OF MINES STUDENTS

Railroad Problem, He Says, Awaits Reports on Their Valuation and an Investigation of Rates.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. ROLLA, Mo., Sept. 25.—"Two great railroad investigations are now under way," Congressman Harry B. Hawes of St. Louis said today in addressing students in the State School of Mines on "Congress and Transportation." Representative Hawes is a member of the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce.

"Until these investigations have been completed," he continued, "we will not know the facts. The investigations are of vast magnitude. The first is to determine the total valuation of the railroads, which is somewhere in the neighborhood of $20,000,000,000. It has been stated this work will not be completed until 1927."

"In the last session of Congress, the Hoch-Smith resolution provided for a nation-wide investigation of rate structures and a readjustment of rates."

"No intelligent or conclusive legislation can be attempted until both these matters are settled. There are, however, certain outstanding facts which may be used as a basis for theoretical argument."

"We find a private investment in railroads of approximately $20,000,000,000 (about the American cost of the Panama Canal), owned by nearly 300,000 stockholders."

"In direct competition with this rail transportation, there is a national investment in waterway transportation of approximately $1,150,000,000, with a contemplated investment of many millions more. This does not include the cost of the canal, locks, levees, and other waterway improvements which carry both freight and passengers."

"Investment in Highways. Investment in highways of approximately $1,500,000,000. We are adding to this, each year, a national investment of $75,000,000; and, taken jointly with state and county investments, we are spending approximately $1,000,000,000 each year in the building of roads."

"There are 15,000,000 motor vehicles, with an estimated average value of $500 for each machine, making a total private investment of $7,500,000,000. This private investment in motor vehicles, supplemented by the national and state investment in roads, will approximate the total of the railroads."

"When the president of a railroad walks into his office he finds that office under Government regulation. The brakeman, the fireman and the engineer come under this regulation. The accounting system and rate-making are under Government regulation. The engine, the coach, the sleeping car and the truck are under Government regulation. And, finally, the stockholder has a Government limitation placed upon the earning power of his stock."

"The ordinary man of intelligence should pause before rushing to Congress with some pet theory of his own to radically change conditions, and yet we have literally hundreds of bills introduced in every session, intended to remedy some special feature or to affect some local community, which would disrupt, disorganize and in many cases destroy the continuity of the whole."

Has Plan of Supervision. "I have under consideration now the preparation of a bill which will bring under one directing head all the related subjects of transportation—highway, waterway, rail and aeronautics."

"I have already introduced a bill providing for regional commissions for the Interstate Commerce Commission, intending to bring a local contact and close connection in the matter of investigation and determination of local situations, with a power somewhat similar to that of the Federal District Courts, whose rulings are final but subject to review by our United States Supreme Court."

"Undoubtedly the tendency is toward the consolidation of railroad properties. Whether this should be done by the direction of the Federal Government through its national commission or left to the voluntary action of the roads is a debatable question on which I shall reserve judgment until the fall session of Congress."

'MAYOR KNOWS I HAVE NO USE FOR HIM,' GAYER SAYS

Judge of Court of Criminal Correction Answers Miller's Letter on Bond Fee Complaints.

DENIES EVER HAVING ACCEPTED ANY

Jurist Says It Evidently Is Retaliation Because of His Disapproval of Official Lawlessness.

"I never asked or received a nickel for accepting bonds," Judge Gayer replied indignantly. "I never would take anything for it. I am not supposed to take any reward for approving bonds. I think this is a measure of retaliation by the Mayor because I have gotten after the Police Department for their methods and because I am not upholding all the fines of the police judges."

"The Mayor knows I have no use for him, didn't vote for him and didn't work for his election. I ought not waste breath covering his letter; there's nothing to it."

Substance of Letter. In his letter to the Judge, Mayor Miller said: "I have received many complaints relative to the custom of Judges of the Court of Criminal Correction of accepting money from bondsmen for signing bonds. These complaints have become quite numerous and so many threats have been made that I asked the City Counselor for a ruling on this matter, and am enclosing you herewith a copy of the ruling. It is not my intention in the slightest degree to stick my nose in what you are doing. You lay the blame on the people and not to me, but I thought it my duty to inform you as to what is going on."

Counselor Sent's ruling quoted sections of the statutes, which provide that an officer who, by color of his office, demands or receives any reward for performing his duty shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Judge Calvin Miller, the only judge of the Court of Criminal Correction, is out of the city. He has not been active in opposing official lawlessness in the manner Judge Gayer has, one reason being that it is Judge Gayer who hears appeals from the police courts. Mayor Miller said today he had nothing to add to what he said in the letter.

A number of years ago, when Alderman Krueger was a Judge of the Court of Criminal Correction, a similar question was raised and he admitted that bondsmen who had him approve bonds at his home on Sunday would throw money on the table, which he felt justified in keeping "because they were out of the old lady's cage." Circuit Attorney Stiffener, who was Prosecuting Officer then, held that no such fees should be accepted.

UPHOLDS RIGHTS OF CITIZEN AS BASIS OF GOVERNMENT

Senator Williams Addresses Junior Chamber of Commerce at Francis House.

United States Senator George H. Williams, addressing the Junior Chamber of Commerce at the Francis House last evening, discussed the rights of citizens and said they constituted the foundation upon which the United States Government was founded.

"The rights of civil freedom, religious, industrial and social freedom, will always be ideals of a free people," he said.

"Ideals of Government do not change greatly in fundamental things, and added that the present generation builds about as the fathers did."

Need for Zoning Law.
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

THE Executive Committee of the Zoning Commission of our city has at the present time under consideration various phases concerning the zoning of buildings in St. Louis. There has been a flaring disregard as to character of buildings since the zoning law was declared unconstitutional in the higher courts of Missouri about a year ago. Buildings were erected in certain sections of our city not in keeping with the dignity of those localities. The time was ripe for a change of conditions, which was accomplished by the Legislature of our State recently.

It is most essential that building restrictions be placed on types and character of building in certain parts of our city. It is also essential that St. Louis be kept in the same high class regarding building development in our downtown business district, as other foremost cities, such as Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, Pittsburgh, etc., and not limit the height of office or business structures to 12 or 14 stories.

They do not limit the height of buildings in the business sections in the cities mentioned, rather glory in the monumental aspect of same. We must consider ourselves a cosmopolitan city, a city of the first class, and not get into the category of third-class towns. The ground values of downtown St. Louis do not permit the limited height of buildings, and it is certain that prospective investors will seriously hesitate to invest under those conditions. This is a matter which will need serious reflection on the part of the Executive Committee of the Zoning Commission.

O. R. TEICHMAN.

Extend V. P. Parade.
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

ALLOW me to suggest that I wish the newspapers of St. Louis would advocate the extending of the V. P. Parade itinerary from Vandeventer to the Sarah line. This would lengthen the line to such an extent that it would accommodate with more comfort many thousands of people. As it has been, the crowds were so dense that the parade could not be seen with the proper comfort and the public should have due consideration. Better still would be to move the whole line of march much further west into the residential section and bring it out of the downtown section, where people do not reside any more.

GEORGE W. BOUCHER.

Credit to Opera Promoters.
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

I N reply to "Why the Opera Deficit?" signed J. F. M. K., would say: This party does not sign his full name, is rather harsh in his criticism and unjust in his remarks.

I was present when "half the audience walked out" during the most impressive part of "Cavalleria," and wondered what possessed the people that had paid their money and come out for a grand opera treat to act in such an undignified and unwarranted manner. The vocalization of the "Intermezzo" was a surprise to some of the audience, but was not the work of Conductor von Grove. The song is an Ave Maria, with Italian words by P. Mazzoni and English words by Fred H. Weatherly, and a copy of this has been in our family for 20 years and more.

The comparison between Miss d'Arle and the wonderful singing and acting by Miss Elida Vettori is unjust. When we go to hear grand opera under such favorable conditions as recently afforded us, surely the light opera season, together with its principals, is in the discard, and we should give credit where it is due for the bringing to our city of singers of note, and the chance to hear grand opera at popular prices.

It is a task indeed to get together all the talent represented by Mr. Goltzner's recent effort, and it must be discouraging to find that the public will not embrace the wonderful opportunity to be educated in the realm of music through grand opera.

MRS. F. W. BROWN JR.

No Affront Intended.
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

KINDLY register me as one who preceded against the affront you tendered Fannie Hurst by the insinuations of the editorial you published, and the further insult you offered by printing the letter from a "Student."

This matter does not impair Miss Hurst's national reputation as a writer, but reflects ignominiously on an institution we St. Louisans would like to think of as great.

GRACE REEVE FENNEL.

Springdale, Ark.
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

IN the Post-Dispatch of Sept. 19 was an article telling of the large evaporator in Springdale. Why does the writer of that article try to lead people to think that Springdale is in Benton County, when it is in Washington County and is the greatest shipping point in Northwest Arkansas?

It seems that he had to borrow Springdale to boost Benton County. W. H. K. Springdale, Ark.

INVESTIGATING POLICE LAWLESSNESS.

The charges of oppression, violation of law and brutality in the arrest and treatment of persons on suspicion, and the unwarranted invasions of homes, are where they ought to be—before the grand jury, whose power to investigate, summon witnesses and indict if the evidence justifies it is practically unlimited.

The grand jury has found true bills against four members of the police force for illegal conduct and brutality. The guilt of these officers cannot be determined until they have had a trial in open court, but the grand jury's action shows that a prima facie case has been made on the evidence available.

It is gratifying to note that the grand jury is going beyond its action in indicting the four policemen on evidence submitted to it. It has taken up the whole field of police oppression, illegality and brutality for investigation. Chiefs Gerk and Kaiser have been called before that body for questioning, and it is understood that a subpoena was issued for Allen C. Orrick, President of the Police Board, who is out of town. Coroner Vitt, who charged inefficiency in investigating murder cases, and Circuit Attorney Schweitzer will be questioned, according to the reports.

The indications are that the grand jury intends to make a thorough investigation. That is the right course to pursue. The whole subject should be threshed out, so that all the facts may be known, and whatever action the grand jury may take or whatever report it may make will be based upon facts.

The necessity of grand jury investigation is manifest. The importance of the subject cannot be overestimated. It touches the powers of the police, the rights of the people to be secure in their persons, property and homes against unwarranted invasion and arrest. Because the persons who have been arrested without warrant and whose homes have been invaded without warrant, who have been put in jail on suspicion without evidence and held there for at least 20 hours, are for the most part poor or unemployed and without means to seek recourse at law, does not in the slightest degree affect the question of wrongdoing or the interest of all citizens in their plight and in the lawless actions of the police. Invasion of the rights of the poorest and humblest affects the rights of all citizens. Official lawlessness, the worst kind of lawlessness, involving police tyranny, oppression or brutality is a menace to all, is a menace to American institutions. It promotes disrespect for law, hostility to authority and to law officers, and general lawlessness.

It should be borne in mind that while policemen and detectives are the actual offenders, the responsibility primarily rests upon the Police Board and the heads of the Police Department. The subordinates in the force act under instructions, seeking the good will and approval of their superiors. If they are ordered to make wholesale raids, to raid and arrest without warrant on suspicion, to treat prisoners rough, they are bound to obey and are very much inclined, naturally, to better the instructions of their superior officers.

It is a maxim that there is no wrong without a remedy in law. It is, however, not only difficult and costly, but dangerous for individual citizens to seek remedy against police wrong. It invites police reprisals. The power of the police brutally and lawlessly exercised under the orders of the heads of the force usually results in a reign of terror, in which citizens are helpless to protect themselves or obtain redress.

The remedy lies in the hands of the grand jury, with its great powers, to investigate, indict and report, and ultimately in the hands of the prosecuting officers and the courts.

Let us have all the facts, and action in accord. If direct action in the court is not possible in some cases, the moral force of publicity, supported by informed and active public opinion, will be potent to work reform.

THE TRAFFIC SCOUT.

Mr. Coolidge, who recently was nearly run down by an automobile, is now protected by a traffic scout. This scout rides ahead of the President while he walks, and halts traffic at each corner as the President approaches. Thus comes official recognition of the danger which attends the pedestrian every moment he is on the streets. Since the President has set the style, who knows but that the traffic scout may become a regular vocation. When walking resumes its place as a popular sport, no grand lady or pampered millionaire will be properly rigged out unless a smartly-uniformed traffic scout is in the van to make a channel through the traffic. We look for the traffic scout to supplement the malacca stick and the Pomeranian for all fashionable walkers.

CROOKED WORK AT THE CHANNEL.

We have felt all along that there was crooked work around the English Channel this summer, and Gertrude Ederle has now confirmed our worst suspicions. Jabez Wolfe, the British bungler who coached her, Gertrude says, was a garrulous old cockney who whiled away the tedious training hours with stories of his own erotic hatiments to swim the bloomin' brook and what a himpossible ordeal it was if hennybody should ask 'im.

With such airy persiflage Wolfe tried to buoy up his pupil for her crowning effort and imbue her with confidence for her task. And after it was all over the boulder had the impudence to say that Miss Ederle did most of her training on the ukulele. Is it any wonder that Gertrude is furious? To our best knowledge and belief, No.

But for all her fury Gertrude does not realize the full wickedness of the conspiracy against her. She thinks, poor trustful soul, that when he ordered the Egyptian, Helmy, to rescue her Wolfe was chivalrously alarmed for her safety. Such sentiment does her woman's heart credit, but Gertrude is wrong. There was no gallantry but basest treachery in that act. Gertrude herself says she was far from exhausted when Helmy took her in his brown, brawny arms and lifted her into the boat. Though tired, she could have continued the battle an hour or two longer. And Jabez Wolfe, the wretch, well knew that. He saw that Gertrude was in a fair way to win the glory of being the first of her sex to swim the channel. And the perfidious Briton, consumed by his racial hatred for Americans, stepped in and stopped the show.

The truth can now be told. This coach of Gertrude Ederle's is a Britisher of the deepest dye.

Col. Procter of Ivory soap fame furnished all the money for Leonard Wood's presidential drive. Perhaps not all; say 92 44-100 per cent.

PROCTER AS WARWICK.

It cost Col. Procter of Cincinnati a pretty penny to try to make Leonard Wood President of the United States. He did not attempt it single-handed—that is, not intentionally. Other wealthy men were associated in the effort. They cheered, conferred and counseled—but didn't pay the bills. One of those is a Mr. A. A. Sprague of Chicago, who joined with the Colonel in signing a note for $100,000. The Colonel is now suing Sprague to compel him to pay his share of that note.

The outcome of this suit is of little public interest. Procter's effort to make Wood President, however, is more than an episode. He came near doing it. He might have succeeded but for Hiram Johnson. In a State whose delegation he confidently counted on, Hiram was engulfed in tumbling floods of Wood money. In his best Johnsesque, Hiram bellowed the story from the floor of the Senate. The result was a resolution to investigate the expenditures of candidates in the primaries. The disclosures finished Wood—finished him as completely as the "Lowden slush fund" revelations finished Illinois' former Governor.

It is all over now, except the sordid financial details. Leonard Wood has fared rather well. As Governor-General of the Philippines he is more happily placed, we believe, than he would have been in the White House. That man is pre-eminently a vicerey, a congenial procurator. As for Col. Procter—what a million more or less to the Maharajah of Ivory Soap? As for the wealthy welters who left the Colonel holding the bag—well, they have taught the Cincinnati Warwick a million dollars' worth of politics. But fiasco though it proved to be, Mr. Procter's presidential essay is a menacing footnote of American history.

VETERANS' BUREAU AGAIN IN THE NEWS.

The Veterans' Bureau is in the news again, but for the day only, and not as in the lavish, reckless time of Forbes and his negligent crew. Frank T. Hines, Director, reports to Budget Director Lord that nearly $70,000,000 of the appropriation of $482,000,000 for the bureau has been saved and returned to the Treasury.

This has not been done at the expense of the veterans. Direct payments to them under the law increased by $14,000,000. A greater number of veterans also have been returned to ordinary industry after taking vocational courses, always now in established institutions, the Government schools being closed as unnecessary.

The savings have been in building costs, in cutting off useless travel and superfluous employees, in reducing the cost of hospitalization, by revised accounting systems and by the more prudent purchase of drugs, equipment and supplies. This appears to have been about what the bureau required. The nation will not begrudge the veterans the money they need. Because they need it, there should be no waste.

BOOTLEGGING DISEASE TREATMENTS.

The contest between the chiropractors and the State Board of Health has developed into an interesting crisis. Under the State and city laws, the chiropractors are distinctly in an impasse. Having been almost let alone for years, they have been practicing, putting up signs, and being listed in the telephone book as if that state of things was to continue indefinitely.

But the case of Chiropractor Kirtz having come up before Judge Gayer, a fine of $50 was imposed for displaying a chiropractor's sign, although Judge Gayer announced his reluctance in the decision, explaining that he himself had been benefited by chiropractic. The State Board of Health, it is said, will use this case as a lever to oust the chiropractors from any further open activities. To which the chairman of the Chiropractic Research Bureau of Missouri replies that his brethren will continue to fill the public demand for chiropractic, "if the chiropractors have to bootleg it to them."

The existing law with regard to the practice of medicine should govern those who practice medicine or surgery, or profess to do so. But it is unfair to apply it to those who neither use medicine nor the scalpel, but a new method by which even a reputable Judge, in imposing a fine on one of its practitioners as he believed the law demanded, testified he had been benefited.

And this law, construed as the State Board of Health construes it, virtually precludes the sick from choosing, as they have a right to choose, their method of healing. It demands that they use drugs or resort to a surgeon, when their ailments might be better treated by other means. It takes from the individual one of his most sacred rights, in which his health and even life may be involved.

Chiropractors, like graduates of other schools of healing, should be required to show proficiency in chiropractic. It is unjust, however, to demand of them that they be proficient in other branches, such as the use of the pharmacopoeia and the surgeons' implements, for which they have no need.

It is primarily a question of liberty and the public good. The people do not want to be debarrred from any practical means of combating ill health and relieving pain.

OBSERVATION ON LIFE.

Not long ago we saw a banker looking into the window of a time payment furniture store.

It was in the cool of the morning, and he was no doubt walking leisurely down to the bank when the display caught his eye.

Bed.
Dressers.
Sideboards.
Dining tables.
Chairs.
Couches.
Phonographs.
Rugs.

What notes.

They bore legends like this:
"Take me home for $5 and $1 a month for 12 months."
"Only $1 cash."
"Here's your electric icebox."
"Sleep in this and find out what sleep is."
"An easy chair on easy payments."
"What is home without a grandfather clock?"

The banker looked at all these. He read the legends. Moved from window to window. He was interested.

Presently he stopped at the last window, went over it piece meal, passed on.

Maybe the banker was sure that as he went down the street he was not thinking of the banking business.

Probably he was thinking of one of the very great truths of life.

Recalling the time when he bought things for his home piece by piece. Schemed to pay for them. Worked. Saved.

Furnished his home little by little. Chair by chair.

Rug by rug.

Contrast that to the easy insolence of sending a check for the works!

If he was quite wise—and only age makes us wise—he must have said to himself: "That was a much greater happiness than to get things for the house like that than it is now to order a whole house furnished and take 2 per cent off for cash."

But a dollar he was saying to himself as he went down the street:

"What a happiness it was to put a house together like that, and what a commonplace home is wanting nothing!"

Exactly, as Socrates says.

We don't realize it until, like the banker, we reach affluence.

Have enough stuff in the attic to furnish four homes.

Couldn't think of anything else we need in the house-furnishing line to save us.

Maybe the banker laughed to think of how long it took him to pay for the Morris chair and how nobody used them any more by the time it was paid for!

Anyway, something of this sort must have been passing through his mind, or he would not have lotted by those windows so long.

Our guess, whatever it was.

LINES TO AN UNTAMED SPIRIT.

I caught a lark against my breast.

It beat its wings, and trembled on.

I could not bear to see distressed

The wild thing; thus I let it go.

JULIA CLOFTON CRESAP.

Come to think of it, we cannot agree with the dictionary that home is the place of one's fixed abode. There is no such thing as a fixed abode, and if we waited until we had one fixed to have a home, there would be no such thing as home life. What we do is to come as near to having a fixed abode as we can, leaving the unfixed things until we can get at them. There never was a place of abode in which everything was fixed at the same time—when the roof was tight, the plumbing perfect and the furnace functioning as it should. If you have ever lain awake at night when the weather is cooling you can hear the wood creaking all over the house. The floor cracks beside the bed until you could think to find a fissure in it by turning on a light. What is happening, of course, is that your place of abode is unfixed itself. It never fixes itself, and you never entirely get it fixed. The eminent lexicographers who got up the dictionary never had a home, or they would know how it is.

Sir: The powers that be in this country seem to be doing their best to limit, if not suppress, free speech. However, when they have prevented people from talking it is going to be mighty hard to stop them from thinking, though not many indulge in that rare pastime now.

It's funny, though, when you stop to think about it, how in Jefferson's time, when this country was a mere strippling and a rather weak unit in the group of nations, free speech was welcomed with open arms and no restrictions, while now that we are rich, powerful and seemingly securely established, it is thought best to limit it more and more. Can it be that what we considered our poor and lovely nation during those early days was in reality our period of real strength, while our ever-increasing prosperity and fast-mounting wealth will in the end prove to be our greatest weakness?

Time alone can answer.

An automobile seen on the streets of Troy, N. Y., carried these inscriptions behind:

Under a ruling of Attorney-General Robert W. Goetz, all fines imposed on violators of the fish and game laws in this State will be divided equally between the person who furnishes the information to his local Deputy Game Warden looking to the apprehension of such offenders, and the school district in which the crime is perpetrated.

Recently Tom Cosentino was fined $500 for dynamiting fish in McDonald County. It has been very difficult for Game Wardens to get information in such cases, but now that the law is made plain and public sentiment demands the strict enforcement, fish and game boys can expect to be turned in.

—West Plains (Mo.) Gazette.

Better watch out, Mr. Otto. If we establish that precedent it will not be long before the State will be swarming with sodapops making $10 or $15 a day spring upon their friends and neighbors.

FRIENDLY ADVICE TO LABOR.

From the Ohio State Journal.

JURISDICTIONAL disputes between labor organizations have been numerous during recent years, appearing in many guises, causing stoppage of work on many occasions, with consequent loss of time to workmen and heavy loss to builders and contractors. Some of these disputes have involved contract operations amounting to many millions of dollars, with no blame on any sort on the employer, who has been quick and permanent adjustment of the troublesome question. He said the union alone can settle that difficulty and should do it and union labor would have a rough road to travel if it cannot itself settle its own disputes as to the jurisdiction of labor, being a labor organization man, it was noticeable that his discussion of the jurisdictional disputes was his only utterance on the subject of organized labor.

It was a warning to labor leaders to make quick and permanent adjustment of the troublesome question. EDUCATIONAL PLANS OF WELFARE WORKERS

Board of Religious Organizations to Conduct Many Activities Coming Year.

The educational program of the Board of Religious Organizations for 1926 will be distributed next week showing lines of service which several thousand workers will undertake for the coming year. Under the general direction of Dr. George B. Mangold, executive director; Mrs. Josephine H. Diller, president; and Miss Lillian E. Truett, executive secretary.

This booklet, issued from the office in the Victoria Building, carries the title, "Know St. Louis Service." The introduction states: "The other organization has a responsibility to carry on an educational program through the church, and the Board of Religious Organizations. It offers to the women of the churches, and to clubs and philanthropic societies better facilities than ever before for the continuous development of an educational program."

Ten denominational colleges, in general, churches, in the form of clubs or luncheons, are to be held within the next five weeks. A series of addresses at the Town Club will be given at regular intervals by professional men and women of the city, and will include discussions of public morals, cost of living, public education and health, law enforcement, wages and other topics. Each unit of the board is expected to have a study course before the year closes.

"Observation Service" is one of the features of training for work. On the principle that "unless one sees what is being done, one is apt to lack the enthusiasm necessary for sustained service, and to overlook causes of misery and distress." The women are to be trained the same as last year, in groups of not more than 25, for visits to the City Hospital, Infirmary, Bellefontaine Farm, Training School for Feeble-minded, St. Louis Farm, Koch Hospital, St. Louis Sanitarium, Municipal Prison House, and several private institutions dealing with the aged, children and the handicapped. Bad housing, over-crowding, court cases and similar problems will also be observed.

Series of Lectures. The training of volunteers in the Board of Religious Organizations is to be promoted by series of lectures in the early fall and winter. The department of Americanization and Citizenship will have weekly lectures in October and November by James T. H. Nash, district director, U. S. Immigration Service; Harry T. Brack, Secretary of the Department of Y. M. C. A.; Thomas S. Griffing, District Director of Naturalization; Miss Josephine Grady of the Carondeau Public Library; and Dr. George B. Mangold.

A series of monthly lectures on Child Welfare, for that department, is to be given by Dr. E. W. Wanders, Dr. William Nelson, Dr. Leland D. Alford, Rodoway H. Abeken, Mrs. E. Moyer Wing, and Dr. Mangold.

Therapy Teacher to Speak. Also once a month there will be lectures for the department of Public Institutions and Agencies by Miss Gertrude L. Termit, of the School of Occupational Therapy; Harry McClain, Juvenile Court; Dr. James Lewald, St. Louis Training School; Dr. J. J. Singer, and Dr. Mangold.

A visit to the various City Courts, the Court of Domestic Relations, the Court of Criminal Correction, and the Circuit Court, will be undertaken at intervals, by the volunteers and the department of Protection and the Prevention of Delinquency. A course in recreational leadership, in co-operation with the Community Training School, will be given by Miss Viola Kilgus, for the Neighborhood Service and Recreation department, which is to conduct a community music school at Greeley Memorial Church, Social hygiene and social legislation are to be included. There will be educational lectures along the general lines to be announced.

WILSON POSTAGE STAMPS.

From the Canton (O.) Daily News: A GROWING wonder that has been expressed because the Federal Government has not seen fit as yet to authorize the issue of a Woodrow Wilson stamp has now taken form of an appeal that such authorization be made before the occasion of his birthday anniversary in the next December. The appeal has been brought to the attention of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation which has been approved and passed on by its president, Dr. Norman H. Davis, who says: "In passing upon this request we feel that this is no new precedent. In that there was an issue of stamps out in honor of our deceased President, Warren G. Harding, the foundation feels that in like manner this honor should be paid the memory of Woodrow Wilson, our President who guided us during eight years of storm and stress such as no other man ever faced, who laid down his life on the altar of sacrifice for what he believed to be the cause of his country and the world, and who called upon humanity to take the first step toward the abolishment of war, the greatest enemy mankind has ever known. We feel it would be most fitting to issue this stamp during the month of December next at the time when Woodrow Wilson's birthday will be commemorated by thousands of our citizens throughout the country."

Social Activities

TO BE MARRIED SOON

MRS. WILLARD BARTLETT of 54 Westmoreland place, with her youngest son, Aurelius, have returned from a summer's trip abroad. They accompanied Willard Bartlett Jr., who is a senior at the University of Michigan on his vacation. While in England they were the guests of Sir Walter de Stopham Bartlett, the present head of the Bartlett house in that country, at Stopham House on the estate in Sussex, which has been the home of the family for generations.

GRANDDAUGHTER OF TENTH ST. LOUIS MAYOR DIES

Mrs. Josephine Boggs Noonan, 75 years old, descendant of early French settlers of Missouri, died early today at her home, 5824 Westminster place, following a heart attack.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a. m. tomorrow from St. Roch's Church to Calvary Cemetery. Mrs. Noonan was a daughter of the late United States Senator Lewis V. Bogy of St. Louis, descended from the founders of St. Genevieve. She was a granddaughter of Bernard Pratte, tenth Mayor of St. Louis, who took office in 1844. She is survived by seven children, her husband, Thomas S. Noonan, an early St. Louis real estate man, died about 35 years ago.

Foreign Trade Council to Meet. NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The South is expected to be the most rapidly growing section of the United States in originating American foreign trade, the National Foreign Trade Council declared today, announcing that its thirteenth annual convention will be held in Charleston, S. C. The convention will last from April 28 to April 30, 1926. It will mark the first important national convention held in that faraway city since the Democratic convention in 1860 which refused to nominate Stephen H. Douglas.

Practical Congress Headquarters. CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Chicago was selected as national headquarters yesterday for the National Practical Congress by vote of its Executive Committee. Miss Lina H. West, first woman president of the congress, presided. The congress is composed of 90 leading fraternal organizations, with nearly 5,000,000 members.

C. L. Simpson, Realty Man, Dies. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 25.—C. L. Simpson, 60 years old, real estate dealer, died at his home here last night, after an illness of two weeks. She will return home Nov. 1. Miss Elaine Voigt and her brother, Lewis III, have motored to Florida, and are visiting friends at Miami. They will remain in the South until Nov. 5.

CHURCH RADIO DEDICATED

Cardinal Hayes Officiates at Ceremony in New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Dedicating the new broadcasting station WJLV, erected by the Paulist Fathers at their church in Fifty-ninth street, Cardinal Hayes, Archbishop of New York, last night emphasized "religion's recognition of science," declared there was no conflict between the two and said that each revelation of science makes it less and less reasonable to deny the existence of the Creator. "Religion tonight, in the dedication of this new station of the Paulist Fathers, willingly and gladly wishes to pay tribute to science," he said. "Religion praises the Creator of the universe for the advance and broadening vision of science."

Old Steinway Hall Being Razed. NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Walls of old Steinway Hall, on East Fourteenth street, that once housed the plaintive notes of the boy Kreisler's violin and the cool, high tones of Patti's siren, "Carolina," now hear the discordant sounds of the wreckers' bar and hammer. The old building, one of the last traces of the culture of that once gay thoroughfare, will be replaced by one which will house a clothing business. The old hall was opened in 1866 by Theodore Thomas with a concert by his renowned orchestra and with such artists as Madame Parepa Rosa, Carl Rosa and Signor Brignoli on the program. Until 1890 it was one of the principal music and art centers of the country.

Dinner Dance at City Club for Ice Fund.

Arrangements for the entertainment to be given in connection with the dinner dance next Tuesday evening, Sept. 29, at the City Club, are progressing rapidly, and indications are that a capacity crowd will attend the benefit for the babies which will be the first affair of the club's fall season. Ralf T. Toennfeldt, chairman of the Entertainment Committee, announces that artists from several local theaters will contribute their services to the program, the main feature of which will be the showing of the world flight motion pictures, secured through the courtesy of Col. John A. Pargelow of Scott Field.

The dinner will commence at 6 o'clock, with dancing until 9 o'clock, followed by the program. The entire net proceeds of the evening will go toward making up the $1800 deficit in the Post-Dispatch Free Ice for Babies' Milk Fund.

Morning Movie Tomorrow. Many of the parents who are planning to attend the City Club entertainment for the aid of the tenement children of the city, are greatly interested in the Saturday Morning Movies being inaugurated at the Missouri Theater tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, to provide selected entertainment for boys and girls. A complete program including Thomas Meighan in "The Man Who Found Himself," a Meek Sennett comedy starring Alice Day, the "Sing It Yourself" series with Steve Cady and Harry Kessell, musical music by Milton Slosser, Missouri Theater organist, and numerous other features will be given. Admission for children will be ten cents, with the regular Saturday prices for adults. The net proceeds of the first five Saturday Morning Movies will go to the Ice Fund.

State Good Example of Needs. "Our own State of Missouri is a good example of transportation needs. There isn't a single double track railroad across the State. While our trunk lines have begun double tracking, adding to their equipment and other essentials, it is our duty to make this progress the existence of the Creator. "Religion tonight, in the dedication of this new station of the Paulist Fathers, willingly and gladly wishes to pay tribute to science," he said. "Religion praises the Creator of the universe for the advance and broadening vision of science."

WANTS 'OBEY' STRICKEN FROM CHURCH MARRIAGE CEREMONY

Episcopal Bishop Says Wedlock Is Partnership of Equals, for Mutual Service.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Bishop Charles P. Anderson of the Episcopal diocese of Chicago, today made clear his stand on removal of the word "obey" from the marriage ceremony, which recently attracted widespread notice.

"Obey" means obey and nothing else in the opinion of the Chicago Bishop, who will head the Chicago delegation to the forty-eighth triennial convention of the Episcopal church in New Orleans next month. He labeled as "humbug" the contention of some church leaders that the word means honor and should not be taken literally.

Bishop Anderson declared he will vote to remove the word from the marriage service.

"Too much has been made of the question," said Bishop Anderson. "The marriage ceremony is merely camouflaging in their contention that it should not be taken seriously."

"Obey" in this ceremony means obey and it cannot be interpreted otherwise. Marriage is a partnership of equals for mutual help and should be taken seriously in all its parts and as a whole. It is not a matter of master and servant, as is clearly implied with the word 'obey' in the service. That may have been the idea of marriage once, but not now."

Bishop Anderson expressed belief that removal of the word would strengthen rather than weaken the marriage ceremony.

As proposed changes will take care of the exceptions.

Board of Adjustment. To specify that the Board of Adjustment shall be composed of one architect, one builder, one structural engineer, one realtor and one office building manager.

To enlarge powers of board, permitting it to grant permits for reconstruction of a building, in a district against its use, which may have been destroyed by fire, or other calamity. This to apply, in the discretion of the board, even in cases of total destruction of building.

To give board authority, by a majority vote, to reverse any order or decision of the Building Commissioner.

To provide for assessing costs in board to the courts, the city to pay if the appellant wins, the appellant to pay if he loses.

Temporary Occupancy. To provide for a temporary certificate of occupancy, for the partial occupancy of a partially completed building.

To make the penal section apply to the owner and occupant only, and not to the agent, as in ordinance draft. To eliminate imprudent as a penalty and make violations punishable only by fines.

To eliminate the emergency clause from the ordinance, thus deferring for 30 days the time when it becomes effective. An emergency measure would go into effect as soon as approved by the Mayor.

he would have given for terms less than those given England, and various other members have indicated that they would adhere more or less closely to the British terms, the suggestion that France could settle on anything like the basis suggested by Caillaux almost took the breath away from the Yankee traders.

The same explanation is assumed to apply to the story that France would start with a payment of $25,000,000 a year, that amount to be increased gradually until the annual payments reach $50,000,000.

The first figure is untenable as France is now and has for five years been paying the United States $20,000,000 a year in interest on the surplus war material sold alone, which is only a little more than one-tenth of the total amount she owes. It is conceivable, however, that in a general settlement the interest rate on this $400,000,000 would be cut down as was the British interest on the liberty loans that supplied the money we are now trying to collect.

An even greater reduction might be considered. In that case there would be a rebate to France of perhaps $25,000,000 on the aggregate of the $100,000,000 she has paid in interest. If that sum were applied to the suggested annual payments, France's early installments would be less than they are now.

The $50,000,000 figure represents

DOG'S PEDIGREE CONVICTS MAN OF FRAUD IN MAILS

Certificate of Registration Sent With Animal Said to Have Belonged to Another.

By the Associated Press.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Sept. 25.—T.
E. McLendon of Memphis, Tenn., was found guilty of using the mails to execute a scheme to defraud, by a jury in the United States District Court here yesterday afternoon.
D. B. Puryear, also of Memphis, McLendon's attorney, immediately filed notice of a motion for a new trial. The case involves the sale by McLendon of a bird dog to P.
T. Miner of Ridgeway, Mo.

A certificate of registration, obtained from McLendon and purporting to have been issued on the dog purchased by Miner, in fact applied to a dog owned by R. C.
Smith of Senatobia, Miss., which died about four years prior to the McLendon-Miner transaction, according to testimony brought out by Government counsel. The Government sought to prove McLendon has purchased the certificate from Smith several years after the dog's death, later selling Miner a dog which he represented was registered according to the "papers" obtained from Smith.

The defense contended Smith had sold a dog to McLendon, sending with the dog the certificate of registration in question and that Mc-Lendon had transferred this dog and the certificate to Miner in good faith. The transaction between McLendon and Miner, it was alleged by the prosecutors, was negotiated through the mails, the defendant forwarding his alleged misrepresentation of facts by letter in violation of a section of the postal laws, of which the jury found him guilty.

ADDITIONAL NAMES OF DEFENDANTS IN INCOME TAX SUITS

Court Action Includes 2400
Who Made State Returns for 1919 and 1920—New List in November.

The Post-Dispatch herewith prints a fourth list of persons who were sued this week by City Collector Koehn for failure to pay State income taxes.

As has been told, the amounts asked for are based on incomes for the year ending Dec. 31, 1919, and Dec. 31, 1920, and suits were brought at this time to be within the five-year statute of limitation period.

About 3500 similar suits arising from delinquent State income taxes of a later period will be filed in November by Koehn. To date 2400 such suits have been filed. Among those sued, with the amounts claimed, are:

TOO MANY RELATIVES?
Giving by Modiste Accused of Giving Pictorial Check.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—A modiste accused of giving a pictorial check for which the police have searched for several days on a charge of issuing a fictitious check, is living near San Francisco, the Chronicle stated today. Her handsome children are overalls and a friend to whom she had applied for aid were her only associates in contrast to her days of affluence when she dispensed money by the thousands.

Mrs. Hammel said her failure to cover checks was due to the fact that $12,000 advanced to her by a friend had been lost to her when the friend withdrew the checks. Her financial plight, Mrs. Hammel explained, was due to the drain upon her through supporting too many relatives. When she decided to "cut loose" from them, she said, she sent her husband, Guy C. Hammel, to the Orient at a cost of "several thousand dollars," which provided "a lavish trousseau, jewelry, steamship accommodations with bath," and a few thousand for spending money.

APPEALS TO LEAGUE TO STOP WAR IN SYRIA

Emir Chekik Arlan Writes to Head of Assembly—Lord Cecil Supports Disarmament.

By the Associated Press.
GENEVA, Sept. 25.—Lord Cecil in a brilliant and moving address before the League of Nations assembly today supported the resolutions calling for the preparation of a general conference and the consideration of some system of conciliation and arbitration.

The characterization in the draft resolution of aggressive warfare as an "international crime," he said, merited special attention from the entire world. He reaffirmed Great Britain's devotion to the principle of arbitration and cited her attitude in the dispute with Turkey over Mosul as evidence of his country's anxiety to further the cause of peaceful settlement of international difficulties.

Like Dr. Benes, the Czechoslovakian Foreign Minister, who preceded him, Lord Cecil voiced confidence that progress was slowly but surely being made toward the achievement of both disarmament and security which he asserted, were interdependent. A demand that the league intervene between the French and Syrians in Syria, suspend hostilities there and appoint a neutral commission of inquiry for the purpose of preventing further bloodshed is the gist of a communication received yesterday by President Dandurand of the League of Nations from Emir Chekik Arlan, delegate in Switzerland for the Syrian independence group.

Emir Arlan asserted he was authorized to petition the league by Al-Atache, leader of the Druse movement, who insists that France is committing arbitrary acts not authorized by her position as mandatory power.

CITIZEN'S BOND COMMITTEE MEETING LACKED QUORUM

Only Seven Present When Motion for Kingshighway Reconstruction Is Offered.

The Citizens' Bond Issue Supervisory Committee, which has 15 resident members since Mrs. John S. Payne removed from St. Louis, has had difficulty lately in transacting business, for lack of a quorum—nine members. A resolution to change the rules, so that seven shall constitute a quorum, is being considered.

At a meeting yesterday seven were present. Alderman Eilers presented a request that Kingshighway, from Lindell boulevard to Easton avenue, as a major traffic thoroughfare, should be furnished with a base for needed reconstruction. Only the base of the new street would be furnished by the city. The request will probably be approved when the committee is able to function.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS RAIDED

Liquor Found on Convention Train Lands Two Men in Jail.

By the Associated Press.
CINCINNATI, Sept. 25.—Federal prohibition agents and police raided a special train carrying several hundred members of the Spanish-American War Veterans' Association en route to the convention at St. Petersburg, Fla. The train lay over in Cincinnati to-night.

Police Lieutenant Samuel Smith and Patrick O'Hanlon, city fireman, both of Detroit, and Deputy Sheriff William Albrecht of Wayne County, Michigan, were arrested on liquor charges when they admitted ownership of grips in which liquor was found. They were held in jail pending arraignment before the United States Commissioner here.

WELL USED AS A MASH VAT

Two Arrested When Large Still Is Seized in the County.

Federal prohibition enforcement agents shortly after midnight raided a farm near Bissell Station, St. Louis County, and seized a large still in operation in a barn. John Marino and Frank Lafata, who were in the building when the raiders entered, were arrested.

An old well was in use as a mash vat and, much to the surprise of the agents, was nearly full of rye mash. This was the first time in nearly four years that prohibition agents had had rye being used for the manufacture of moonshine whiskey. In the early days of prohibition the use of rye was common.

HUNGARIAN REVOLT PLOT

Conspiracy to Set Up Dictatorship Alleged.

By the Associated Press.
BUDAPEST, Sept. 25.—Police report discovery of a plot to overthrow the Government. The leaders of the plot, Matthias Rakosi and Zoltan Weinberger, who was Bela Kun's secretary, were arrested with 42 accomplices. The newspapers say they have made complete avowal to the police of a "black list" which marked for death in six months period all the principal Hungarian authorities. As described by the papers, the final aim of the movement was to proclaim a dictatorship again.

Illinois Sailor Dine in China.
Word reached Mascoutah, east of Belleville, yesterday of the death of Edwin Schueta, who died in Shanghai, China, where he has been stationed with the United States Navy. Schueta enlisted in the navy a number of years ago. The body will be shipped to Mascoutah for interment, and is expected to arrive in two weeks. He leaves a brother, Henry Schueta at Freeburg, two sisters, Miss Annie Schueta in St. Louis and Miss Laura Schueta in Freeburg.

Calls Cotton Report "Scandalous."

By the Associated Press.
LAFAYETTE, Ala., Sept. 25.—Characterizing the latest report of the Cotton Crop Estimating Board at Washington as a "scandalous performance," United States Senator Heflin of Alabama declared here yesterday that he will push his campaign for changes in the method of compiling and publishing these reports. "The Crop Estimating Board at Washington stands discredited," he said.

FROM SPOTLIGHT TO GEM-STUDDED THRONE

Sir Hurri Forced by Uncle to "Purify" Soul, After Blackmail Notoriety.

Associated to the Post-Dispatch.
LONDON, Sept. 25.—From the center of the spotlight in Great Britain's most notorious blackmail case to the gem-studded throne of the Maharajah of Kashmir and Jammu has been a path of humiliation and shame for Sir Hurri Singh.
The humbling ceremonies undergone by the handsome young prince to regain the favor of his aged uncle and retain the right of succession was told by an Indian priest, an acquaintance of Sir Hurri and a recent arrival in London in an interview today. Sir Hurri succeeded to the throne of the rule of 1,000,000 people and an annual income of $1,000,000 at the death of the old maharajah, his uncle yesterday.
His darkly handsome features were already known to newspaper readers the world over as those of the victim of a $1,000,000 blackmail plot in Mr. A. case.
Unknown to Sir Hurri, the Indian priest said, the intimate details of his escapades in Europe, reached the old maharajah, Sir Pratap Singh, before the young prince returned to India in 1929. That was shortly after Sir Hurri had been surprised in a Paris hotel with Mrs. Maude Robinson, pretty wife of a London book-maker, but long before his adventure with her had been aired in court.
Sir Hurri was surprised and shagreened when he reached the royal palace at Srinagar to find that his uncle refused to receive him. Furthermore, he was told, if he wanted to remain in the good graces of the Maharajah, he would have to "purify his soul" by performing the penances prescribed for those guilty of major infractions of the rigid rules governing the "kashmiri" or warrior caste of which he was a member.

He philosophically agreed to perform the necessary acts, which included: Shaving his mustache, a sign either of mourning or shame, in this case shame; making sacrificial offerings on the sacred fire, which his princely hands must aid in kindling by the laborious means of rubbing sticks of wood together. His miniature, waxed, black mustache disappeared. On the altar he placed an offering of rice and melted butter and worked to strike a flame while Indian priests chanted hymns of the sinners came to penance.

Restored to Court.
The gods were appeased. The princeling was absolved. The old maharajah, then past three score and ten, received his nephew with open arms and restored him to good standing as the heir apparent.

The public string of the scandal in the London courts last winter, when Charles Robinson sued to recover part of the loot obtained from Sir Hurri, annoyed the Maharajah and again he threatened to break relations with his adventurous nephew.

But advancing years and failing health led the old ruler to agree to cement full reconciliation at the "festival of lights," scheduled for the first week of next November. Sir Pratap's death prevented this but Sir Hurri humiliated and "purified" succeeds to the throne, none the less.

STATUS OF WAGNER ELECTRIC NEGOTIATIONS UNCHANGED

Brown-Boveri Proposals for Stock Purchase Have Not Matured
in Definite Form.

A statement explaining the status of negotiations by the American Brown-Boveri Co., for acquisition of stock control of the Wagner Electric Corporation of St. Louis, was issued today by W. A. Layman, president of the Wagner firm.
"There has been no definite change in the Brown-Boveri situation, as it affects the Wagner company, from the conditions prevailing for the last six months," the statement begins. "Preliminary proposals were made to us some months ago looking to the acquisition of the control of our company, but these have not matured into such definite form as to warrant the board in submitting the matter to stockholders for their consideration."

Layman states further that "the consummation of any such deal is not regarded by the officers or directors of the company as essential to the continued gradual improvement in the market position of the stock of the company." Volume of business and profits is increasing and "in every respect the company is working itself back steadily to its old ground of stability," he adds.

Confessed Slayer Escapes.
By the Associated Press.
SNOW HILL, Md., Sept. 25.—James Baker, the 22-year-old confessed slayer of James Carter, aged resident of Whaleyville, Md., last July, and four other prisoners escaped from jail here late last night.

Dennis Passalia, alleged automobile thief, was recaptured this forenoon near Crisfield, Md. He was suffering from a broken ankle.

ELEVEN SALOONS RAIDED, 73 PERSONS ARRESTED

Police Obtain Search Warrant
When Man Dashes Glass on Floor: Gallon of Whisky Found.

When police visited the saloon of John Walsh, 1824 North Vandeventer avenue, last night, Walsh assured them he had just been raided and "cleaned out" by other police. Nevertheless, the place was searched and the raiders reported finding a half pint of whisky and two bottles of beer.

As police entered the saloon of Jerry Wolf, 1628 Franklin avenue, yesterday afternoon, Wolf dashed something on the floor. That made the raiders suspicious, and they obtained a search warrant. They reported finding 24 cases of beer and a gallon of whisky in a rear room.

A total of 73 arrests was made yesterday and last night, including 12 persons taken in 11 saloon raids, 16 for gambling, 19 robbery suspects, 22 "general suspects," three for having beer and one for desertion.

SUICIDE VERDICT RETURNED

Witnesses Said Woman Was Dependent Over Separation.

A Coroner's verdict of suicide was returned today in the case of Mrs. Gertrude Thompson, 46, of 4155 West Pine boulevard, who died at city hospital at 10:30 o'clock last night, half an hour after taking poison. Witnesses at the inquest said she had been dependent over separation from her husband three years ago.

NEW APPEAL FOR LEGION FUND

St. Louis' Quota of $125,000 Only Half Subscribed.

With only half the $125,000 St. Louis quota subscribed, and only one more week for the drive to run, former Mayor Kiel, issued an appeal yesterday for subscriptions to the American Legion national endowment fund for aiding war cripples and orphans.
"There has been no campaign in St. Louis with a greater appeal, or more deserving of the support of every man and woman," Mayor Kiel said. "It is a public duty to provide properly for the 45,000 American war orphans, and rehabilitate the thousands of disabled veterans." Women's auxiliaries have appointed a special committee to assist in the final week. Campaign headquarters are in the Town Club Building.

Communist Meeting Suppressed

NEAR KOSHER MEAT CASE
Raymond Hartmann, appealed by Circuit Court.
Judge Hartmann, has been petitioned by the Circuit Court to revoke the application for a pro-nunciate decree of incorporation of Vand Hoer, a Jewish association for statutory law. Hartmann has heard testimony and report to a court whether or not the association is entitled to incorporate.
Objection to the petition has been made by Eugene Rainey, editor of the Jewish Voice, and William Siegelmann, president of Brit-Sholem Congregation, who say that the association seeks to monopolize
the sale and distribution of kosher meat in this city.

Hawaiian Flight Postponed.
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—No
further attempt to make a nonstop flight from California to Hawaii will be made before January, Secretary Wilbur announced today.
The seaplane PB-1, with which it is planned to make the flight, has been ordered sent back to the factory at Seattle from San Francisco for modifications in its engines based on recent tests and lessons learned from the performance of the PN-9 planes.

GROCER WHO HAD 5 GALLONS OF WHISKY FREED BY COURT
"I'm Sick of Such Cases," Judge
Says When Police Fail to Tell
Who Gave Tip for Raid.
A charge of possession of liquor against Joe Crocalle, proprietor of a grocery store at 921 North Ninth street, was dismissed by Provisional Judge Grodski today after Detective Sergeant Coakley of the rum squad had testified he raided the store Sept. 5 and found five gallons of whisky on the strength of a tip that liquor could be found there.
"Who gave you the tip?" asked the Court.
"I didn't get his name," replied
Sergeant Coakley.
"I'm sick of such cases," said the Court, "and I shall dismiss this charge. If the man who complained to you was not courageous enough to give his name and come into court his information deserves no consideration as a basis for a search."

IMPlicated BY FINGERPRINTS Impression Like That of Suspect Held for Murder.
By the Associated Press.
MORRISON, Ill., Sept. 25.—
Sheriff Hamilton has announced that photographs of finger prints found on the window screen removed by the assailant who choked

Mrs. Marie McKee, Fulton, Ill., night telephone operator, to death,
early Wednesday morning, have been found to be identical with finger print impressions taken from the hands of John Comiskey, her former fiancé, held without bail
in connection with the murder.

Woman, 80, Unconscious From Gas.
Mrs. Lizzie Rupp, 80 years old, a widow, of 2023 South Eleventh street, is at city hospital in a serious condition from gas poisoning.
She was found unconscious on the floor of her kitchen, beside a gas stove with one burner open, when her brother-in-law, Henry Belcher, 1214 Ann avenue, visited her home
at 8 o'clock last night.

WHAT happened recently in Bluford, Ill., happens in a thousand and one larger places every day, for only about 200 people has Bluford.
A civil engineer and a promoter from distant cities sat with a local landowner in the back room of a country bank.
They had met to open a new town-site, and the papers were ready to sign.
"Now for a pen that will write," said one of the visitors.
"Here you are!" the other two chorused, as each proudly pulled his pen from his pocket. Both were Parker Duofolds.
The other man beamed with recognition, he signed his name, looked the pen over, and, before he left town, bought one like it.

Mayor, 18 Aldermen and Other Executive Study St. Louis Administrative System.
Mayor Charles E. Moyer of Little Rock, accompanied by 18 Aldermen and eight city officials, including the Judge of the Municipal Court and the heads of the fire and police departments, arrived today for a few days of studying the way things are run in St. Louis.
City officials met them at Union Station and escorted them to their quarters in the City Club. Their first visit was to Police Headquarters, where Chief Gerk addressed them on police work here, with particular reference to traffic problems. The next call was at the City Hall, and then they divided for the afternoon, each group taking up its particular feature of interest.

BISHOP DEFENDS EVOLUTION Methodist Prelate Says He is Not an Extreme Fundamentalist.

By the Associated Press.
AKRON, O., Sept. 25.—Belief in evolution as a proved theory was voiced by Bishop Edward A.
Hughes, Chicago, speaking to Methodist pastors at the Northeast Ohio district conference here yesterday.
"I am not an extreme fundamentalist nor an extreme liberalist," he said. "I believe in evolution and I do not think it worth much of a preacher's time to disprove the theory."

3 HELD FOR WOMAN'S DEATH Coroner's Jury Denies Bonds to Husband and Stepdaughter.

By the Associated Press.
WAUKEGAN, Ill., Sept. 25.—A Coroner's jury late night recommended that Arthur Holt and his stepdaughter, Mrs. Clara Harcoq, be held to the grand jury without bonds on charges of murder in connection with the death of Holt's wife, who was shot to death in her home at Fox Lake last Sunday evening.
The jury also recommended that Albert Harcoq, Mrs. Harcoq's husband, be held to the grand jury
as an accessory before the fact.
Holt and Mrs. Harcoq are already in custody and warrants charging murder have been sworn out, but never served. Harcoq is at liberty under $5000 bonds on the charge
the Coroner's jury named.

Feel Older Than
You Should?

Is a dull, persistent backache making you old and miserable? Are you lame, stiff and aching; tortured with stabbing, rheumatic pains? Do you feel tired, weak and worn out—suffer headaches, dizziness, and disturbing bladder irregularities? Then you should know that all too often these are warnings of faulty kidneys. And even a slight kidney ailment is too serious to neglect. Don't risk delay! If your kidneys are disordered, help them with a tested diuretic. Use Doan's Pills. No other remedy is so universally successful.

None so well recommended. Ask your neighbor!

Read How These St. Louis Folks Found Relief:

JOHN DIETHELM, 1934 Gravois Ave., says: "My back ached and pained so I was laid up for a week at a time. Whenever I tried to bend the pain was much worse and I could hardly straighten. My kidneys were weak. I used Doan's Pills from Fischer's Drug Store and they strengthened my kidneys and did away with the pain in my back."

MRS. A. LEBLANC, 4332 Prairie Ave., says: "A cold disordered my kidneys. My back ached. I suffered with headaches and dizzy spells and spots came before my eyes. I was also extremely nervous.
After using four boxes of Doan's Pills from Otto's Drug Store I was relieved."

OSCAR GRUNOW, Proprietor of Grocery Store and Meat Market, 4171 Fair Ave., says: "Mornings my back ached and rheumatic pains settled in my arms and limbs.
Sharp pains also darted across my kidneys which sapped my strength.
My kidneys were disordered. I used Doan's Pills from Reuter's Drug Store and they cured me."

GERMANY TO URGE THAT THE BRITISH LEAVE COLOGNE

This Will Be One Condition
if Reich Enters Security Pact—Earlier Saar Plebiscite Wanted.

LEAGUE INQUIRIES IN GERMANY OPPOSED

Berlin View Is That These Merely Mean Perpetuation of Allied Military Control.

By the Associated Press.
BERLIN, Sept. 25.—The German delegates to the Security conference, invitation to which was accepted by the Cabinet yesterday, are expected to carry on important private conversations with the allied statesmen while the negotiations for the security pact are proceeding.

Interest in political circles
here centers as much in these private talks as in the formal conversations on the security issue. It is recalled that the value of the London reparations conference lay as much in the gentlemen's agreements reached between the German and allied delegates as in the adoption of the Dawes plan.

What Germany Wants.
The Germans at the forthcoming meeting, the date and site for which are yet to be fixed, will stress privately that hand-in-hand with the security pact must go the following:

Reduction of Germany's burden of maintaining occupational forces.

Immediate evacuation of the Cologne bridgehead, held by the British.

Advancement of the plebiscite
in the Saar valley to a date earlier than provided in the Versailles treaty.

Rescinding of the League of Nations' decision to conduct investigations in Germany from time to time, in which Germany sees merely a perpetuation of the military control commission idea.

The pro-Government organs are declaring that permanent renunciation of Alsace-Lorraine constitutes such a heavy sacrifice that Germany should be compensated
by these concessions.

New Factors.
The Deutsche Diplomatische Correspondenz, which usually reflects the viewpoint of the German Foreign Office, says the pact question has undergone additional developments since the legal and allied discussions at Geneva. It is pointed out by this organ that the principal factors for consideration are a Polish offensive toward the Anglo-French agreement, Italy's entry into the negotiations, Russia's latest initiative, manifested repeatedly as a reflex of the status of the Anglo-French negotiations, and Czechoslovakia's move to conclude an arbitration agreement with Germany.

It is declared also that the decisions of Austria Chamberlain, British Foreign Secretary, and Aristide Briand, France's Foreign Minister, in London, have been scrapped by the Geneva conference, so that today the following questions are pertinent:

Great Britain's attitude toward the French desire to become guarantor for possible eastern agreements, and Great Britain's attitude toward such agreements generally and toward Italy's ultimate standpoint.

new crop! cranberries now on the market

The Tonic Fruit

The tonic fruit with the flavor that finds favor with everyone.

Start serving cranberries today! Cranberry Sauce can be made in 10 minutes! See recipe at right.

Easiest fruit to prepare. Economical because there is no waste.

This is a good time to preserve cranberries. It's handy to have a supply to serve with meats—and for making delicious desserts.

Cranberry Jelly

8 lbs. of cranberries and 2 1/2 lbs. of sugar make 10 glasses of jelly. For color and flavor no jelly can look or be more delicious than this. It jells with half the amount of sugar used with most fruits. See recipe at right.

Always cook cranberries in enameled, porcelain-lined or aluminum vessels

NEGRO BOY, 14, SAID TO CONFESS FIVE BURGLARIES

Prisoner Caught When Trying to Rob Restaurant at 816
North Grand.

A 14-year-old negro boy, Lea Akers, has confessed, police say, to five burglaries or attempted burglaries within the last 90 days, including the one at 816 North Grand boulevard, where he was arrested yesterday. The boy, who is 5 feet tall, weighs 125 pounds and has brown hair and eyes. He is a native of St. Louis and has been in the city for about a year. He was arrested after attempting to rob a restaurant at 816 North Grand boulevard, where he was caught with a 25-caliber automatic pistol, a gold watch and $25 in cash. He is now in the St. Louis house of correction, where he is being held for a month. He was arrested after being seen in the neighborhood of the restaurant where he was caught. He is now being held in the St. Louis house of correction, where he is being

LIQUOR SCHOONER CAPTURED

British Craft Towed Into Port at Mobile, Ala.

MOBILE, Ala., Sept. 25.—Surprise while off Timbalier light, near Barataria bar, Louisiana, the British two-masted schooner, Hazel
E. Herman was captured Wednesday by the patrol boats CG-250 and CG-302 and towed into port here. The schooner, registered out of Lunenburg, Nova Scotia, was loaded with 2900 cases of liquors and alcohol. Seven men, including Capt. Audrey Haughn, were arrested and held in jail in default of bail.

Capt. Haughn was chatting with Coast Guard Boatwain C. A. Anderson last night and said that he was hove to outside the 12-mile limit, when he let drop the remark he had unloaded 800 cases. He believed himself outside the limit.

Boatswain Anderson then ordered him under arrest.

Four Knockouts Feature S.B.A.C. Fight Program

Pivac Beats Young in First Round of Heavyweight Bout; Terry Trims Cibulka.

Four knockouts featured the amateur boxing program last night at the South Broadway Athletic Club. Tom Pivac, South Broadway fighter, put away Joe Young of the Tower A. C. in the first round of one of the heaviest bouts. Young had little chance with the determined Pivac, who showed blows about the head. The big heavyweight and forced him to take the count about the middle of the opening session. Referee Heller stopped the special bout, in the 125-pound class, in the fifth round, giving Lou Terry of the South Broadway A. C. a technical knockout victory over Dan Cibulka, when it was obvious that Cibulka was not equal to the driving punches of Terry.

Charles Theodore of the S. B. A. C. knocked out Will Meise, a club mate, in the first round of a 147-pound preliminary. Leo Gonella was awarded a technical knockout over Ernie Goldstein in the second round of their 125-pound curtain raiser.

The summaries:

Preliminaries.
115 POUNDS.—Dan Dohn, South Broadway Athletic Club, won the judges' decision over Al Meyers, also South Broadway A. C., three rounds. Paul Lang, South Broadway Athletic Club, won the judges' decision over Joe Stein, Mulanphy Community Center, three rounds.

125 POUNDS.—Leo Gonella, South Broadway Athletic Club, won on a technical knockout over Ernie Goldstein, South Broadway Athletic Club, in the second round. Goldstein quitting in the middle of the session.

135 POUNDS.—Referee Walter Heller stopped the bout between Joe Weber and John Holstein, both of the South Broadway Athletic Club, in the first round, declaring it no contest.

147 POUNDS.—Charles Theodore, South Broadway Athletic Club, knocked out Will Meise in the first round. Special Bout.

HEAVYWEIGHT.—Tom Pivac, South Broadway Athletic Club, knocked out Joe Young of the Tower A. C. in the first round.

125 POUNDS.—Lou Terry, South Broadway Athletic Club, won on a technical knockout over Dan Cibulka, R. B. A. C. Referee Heller stopped the fight in the fifth round to save Cibulka from further beating.

Referee Walter Heller, Judges, Robert W. Hall and Seneca Taylor.

ADMISSION PRICE
AT CIRCUIT MEETING
CUT TO 25 CENTS

By the Associated Press.
COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 25.—The favored Bob Armstrong won the M. and M. 3100 trotting stake, the feature of yesterday's grand circuit card. The race comprised three heats, two of them at distances more than a mile with a short heat in between.

In the distance races Bob Armstrong proved much the best of the small field but in the short distance was able to finish no better than third, Crawford, second choice, winning.

The Chamber of Commerce $1900 stake for 2:08 trotters resulted in a straight heat victory for the favorite, Trumpet, driven by Tommy Murphy. The latter was not so fortunate in the Capital City $1200 stake for 2:04 trotters. Murphy's Hollywood Leonard was unable to repeat his victory of earlier in the week, Cox winning in straight heats with Ethelinda.

Progeny of Grattan Royal had things their own way in the 2:10 pace.

Because of poor attendance, directors of the Columbus Driving Association announced that for the balance of the meeting, admission will be lowered to 25 cents. The directors intimated this might be the last grand circuit meeting for this city.

St. Louis Schools May Again Play Away From Home

Superintendent Maddox Now Considering Revision of Rule.

John J. Maddox, Superintendent of Public Schools, has now under consideration the question of revising the Board of Education rule restricting St. Louis school athletic teams from participating in games or meets outside the city limits.

Maddox would not admit that he will recommend to the Board of Education the removal of the restriction, but he said that for the first time he is giving the matter his earnest, personal attention and is going into all details of the advisability of raising the ban on out-of-town competition.

It is understood that, moved by the lack of a league playing field in St. Louis, Soldan High School's football team is making an effort to book a game with Webster High at Webster. Under the present rules such a contest would not be possible.

The situation is more acute this year than heretofore because of the fact that the High School League has no field and further because Principia Academy has moved its athletic field into the county, on Lackland road.

Thus, forbidden to play in the county, and with no place to play in the city, local public school teams are in a sorry predicament.

These circumstances, combined with Maddox's admission that he is studying the problem, lead to the conclusion that St. Louis teams will soon be permitted to play out-of-town games.

McCarthy Replies To Objections Of Soccer Men

"Used" Professional Baseball Contract as Guide," Official Says.

Every concession that could be made to insure the well being of the player is made in the new contract offered by the St. Louis Soccer League to the players of its four clubs, Harry J. McCarthy, secretary of the league, said today in reply to the objections raised by players.

"We patterned the contract after the agreement used by the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues," said McCarthy today. "The stipulation that a player furnish his own playing shoes and the arrangement whereby the club can release an injured player if the man is incapacitated for a period longer than two weeks, are contained in the minor league baseball players' contracts. Anyone who knows anything about the financial return from professional soccer here knows that the club owners could not afford to assume the expenses of all injuries to players regardless of the duration of the hurt."

"We are not taking a belligerent attitude in dealing with the players. We want them to understand the provisions of the contract thoroughly before rejecting it."

"The players of my club, the Vespers, are all signed and ready to play and I believe the other managers will have no great difficulty in lining up their men."

McCarthy said that any guarantee at all to players for games out of town are necessarily impracticable because St. Louis cannot get a guarantee of more than expenses from the clubs in Chicago, Detroit and Cleveland.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 25.—The varsity of Kentucky athletic officials yesterday announced John and Jesse Hiffe, brothers, of Houston, Tex., and seniors at the University of Kentucky, have signed a contract to play baseball with the Pittsburgh Pirates next season. John, aged 21, is a heavy-hitting outfielder and Jesse, 24, is a southpaw twirler.

Pirates Sign Collegians.
By the Associated Press.
LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 25.—The varsity of Kentucky athletic officials yesterday announced John and Jesse Hiffe, brothers, of Houston, Tex., and seniors at the University of Kentucky, have signed a contract to play baseball with the Pittsburgh Pirates next season. John, aged 21, is a heavy-hitting outfielder and Jesse, 24, is a southpaw twirler.

Bushels of Apples a Day Keep the Doctor Away at Princeton

PRINCETON, N.J., Sept. 25. USHELS of apples a day keeps the doctor away from the Princeton football team.

A total of over 120 bushels of the fruit will be consumed by the varsity squad during the season, according to the estimate of the head steward at the training table.

He said today that in addition to the bushel of cooking apples, which make their way daily to the table in the form of prepared foods, an additional bushel is consumed by the men after meals.

The fruit is used as a substitute for sweets, banned during training.

TOWER CAMP MEETS PURITANS IN PLAYOFF CONTEST TOMORROW

Tower Camp and the Puritans will play off their title last Sunday at Fairground tomorrow afternoon in the municipal baseball elimination round robin. The game will take place on diamond No. 1 and will start at 2:30 o'clock.

Sunday's schedule, in the second round of the round robin, calls for games between the Engineers and Tower Camp, and the Schenbergs and Puritans. The regular admission of 25 cents will be charged for the Sunday double-header.

The final round of the intermediate championship round robin will also be played Sunday. Perpetual Help and the Helix will meet on diamond No. 11 in Forest Park in the deciding game of the series. Both have perfect records thus far. St. James and St. Raymond play on diamond No. 12 in the other attraction. Both contests start at 2:30 o'clock.

Ft. Worth Wins And Ties Atlanta In Dixie Series

By the Associated Press.
ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 25.—The Fort Worth Panthers, champions of the Texas League, last night hit the long trail back home a happy lot, for they had evened the count against Atlanta in the Dixie series.

Led by Joe Pate, southpaw, who pitched a masterful game, the Texans swept the Crackers before them, 7 to 1.

Cy Warmoth, a left-hander, started for Atlanta, but lasted only two innings and a fraction—long enough for the Panthers to gather in four runs from five hits and four walks. "Wheeler" Dell replaced him and yielded the other scores to Fort Worth.

Davis Gets Home Run.
Stormy Davis, center fielder, hit his second homerun for the Panthers in the eighth inning. The ball went into the left-field stands. No one was on the bases. The last run of the Panthers came in the ninth, when Sears tripled to right and scored on Palmer's sacrifice fly.

The two teams will spend today in traveling and will resume the series in Fort Worth tomorrow. The club first winning four games will be crowned champions of Dixie.

Three games will be played in Fort Worth and if a sixth is necessary the teams will return to Atlanta. The scene of a seventh game would be decided by the flip of a coin.

Eleven thousand five hundred and nine persons paid $17,523.04 to see the second game of the Dixie series between Fort Worth and Atlanta. Net receipts, $15,770.72, will be divided as follows: To Texas League, 10 per cent, $1577.07. To Southern Association, 10 per cent, $1577.07. To players' pool, 40 per cent of remainder, $1749.95. To remaining $4856.64 will be divided equally between owners of the two clubs.

FASCISTS RESENT TALES OF TERRORISM

Party Leaders, However, Boast of Violent Methods Used at Their Convenience.

By HIRAM KELLY MODERWELL, Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and the Chicago Daily News.

ROME, Italy, Aug. 26.—Italians frequently express resentment over the fact that opposition leaders reading abroad represent to the world that Italy is ruled by illegal and terroristic methods. What nonsense, they say. Hundreds of thousands of tourists come to Italy and see no sign of disorder. Italy has a lawful government, nominated by the King and supported by a parliamentary majority, and governing within and by the laws. Between the two pictures—one of a country suffering under daily acts of violence and another of a peaceful and laborious land under a constitutional government—foreigners may be puzzled to know which is true.

The puzzle is explained partly by the fact that Mussolini, whatever he may do, is always careful to respect at least the forms of law. He put the situation with his usual frankness in a recent article in the Avanti! for the Gerarchia, a Fascist review. Speaking of his accession to power, he said: "I obtained a clear parliamentary majority, but I took care to support my power with 100,000 rifles" (the Fascist party militia).

Boast of Violent Methods. In other words, legalism and extralegalism coexist. The Fascist leaders do not deny, but rather boast, that they use extralegal, violent methods whenever it suits their convenience—not against the Socialists and Communists (who hardly count in the present situation), but against liberals, Democrats, Catholics, war veterans' clubs, athletic associations, social clubs and individuals who are distasteful to local Fascist leaders. In the first year of the Fascist regime the murdered deputy Matteotti, kept and published a list of hundreds of acts of violence. But no body seems willing to continue his work. Shootings, burnings and clubbings continue, sporadically at the rate of a good many a week. Occasionally the Government will officially "deplore," but nearly always some recognized Fascist spokesman will justify the deed.

Often, if not usually, the culprit escapes punishment. The Fascist accused of murdering the priest, Don Minzoni, thought the evidence against them seemed conclusive, were acquitted in the fascist stronghold of Ferrara. The official Vatican organ, Osservatore Romano, thereupon observed that so long as the Government failed to hunt down and punish the authors of these innumerable acts of violence, the criminals would continue to consider themselves privileged and protected.

On the other hand, there are frequent instances of fascist being murdered, sometimes in street brawls, but more often in ambush. Scores of such murders have been reported in the last year. These crimes embitter the fascist, who often feel that retaliations are justifiable. So the circle of bitterness and violence is perpetuated.

Little Violence in Cities. Now it is possible that the hundreds of thousands of tourists do not see this violence? Foreigners lived in Berlin through the worst revolutionary days and learned only from the newspapers that there had been some fighting, but generally fascist violence occurs not in Rome, Milan and Venice, but in the small towns. The Government takes special pains to preserve order in the cities, but in the villages the local fascist leader may be a law unto himself.

How far is fascist violence an effective, deliberate part of the regime and how far a mere extirpation? Could the Government maintain itself if all extralegalism were suppressed? In the opinion of this correspondent it could, for the Government is strong, capable and generally respected. But it would have to form a coalition with other parties and distribute among liberals and others a good many offices now held by fascists.

The extremist wing of the fascist party, which is now in power, is determined to prevent this at all costs. In this sense violence is a necessary part of the present mode of Government. And many defend it as essential to the great work of national regeneration which only "integral, uncompromising fascism" can achieve.

Fascism's Victory in Palermo. The can be no doubt that under the leadership of the extremists fascist has greatly increased in material strength. The fascist victory in the municipal elections in Palermo is indicative. But a fascist victory in Palermo is an extraordinary as a Republican victory in Atlanta, Ga. Almost all Sicily, and especially Palermo, used to be considered automatically liberal. Under Giolitti, reputed a master of the sciences, the victory of the liberals was regarded as a certainty.

Now know precisely how large a part violence played in the history of the Palermo election. The Government's reports of it invariably left off "election day" passed quietly. But the Rome Tribune, a pro-government paper, however, endeavors to keep the news columns independent, suggested a different story. In one of the most curious election reports ever published, it read:

TO FIND A CAPABLE OFFICE HELPER is an urgent matter sometimes. Get him through these columns.

Belleville Council Ponders Dogs' Right to Bay Moon

Outcry Against Massed Chorus That Is Alleged to Rise Nightly From Kennels of Canine Farms.

Singly, or in pairs or in wailing quartets the dogs of Belleville bark the night through to their hearts' content. Even the lighter sleepers among the town's good citizens can slip gently back into slumber with the reflection that their homes are well guarded. But when the quartet becomes a massed chorus, when the simple harmony of the quartet is elaborated into complicated fugue with bound dogs howling out a mournful wail against the silken yipping of collies and the double bass of the German police dog choir, that is, as one might say, something else again.

Petition Presented. At least that is the viewpoint of a group of citizens who last Wednesday presented a petition to the City Council asking that the infant industry of dog breeding, recently born in Belleville, be strangled, that dog breeding kennels be prohibited as coming within the meaning of common nuisances.

There are 12 kennels within the city limits now, all of them operated by members of the St. Clair Dog Fanciers Association. Within the fence inclosures of the dog farms, one may find a dozen breeds of dogs ranging from lap dogs and small terriers, through coon hounds, collies and pointers to the aristocratic police dog. From these kennels, says E. W. day passed quietly. There were numerous rifle and revolver shots. (Interrupted because of damage to the line.)

11:30 o'clock—Cannon range through the streets, fire to overflowing with fascist. They came well armed with hand grenades. An official of the militia surprised a militiaman with a bomb, but after further investigation ascertained that all the fascists—(interrupted because of damage to the line.)

11:30 o'clock—The Fascist went in camions to the Popular Union and fired four revolvers; shots, two loud explosions of hand grenades were heard. (Interrupted because of damage to the line.)

Why Orlando Quit. The Fascist list, supported by certain disaffected liberal elements, won in the ratio of three to two. Ex-Premier Orlando, who had campaigned in his home town for his liberal friends, thereupon resigned his seat in Parliament, saying: "The recent elections in Palermo, because of the way in which they were conducted, have convinced me that there is no place in Italian public life today for a man of my faith."

Following the Palermo elections, there were elections in Spezia and other towns in which the opposition did not even present candidates. Fascist victories everywhere.

Whether such conditions constitute a "reign of terror," as some opponents of fascism assert, is a matter of interpretation. Certainly the vast majority of Italians go quietly about their business and never feel the dreaded Fascist "sacred manganelli" or club. But anyone who becomes prominent in the opposition, whether nationally or locally, has reason to fear that he might possibly be the next victim.

Is this terrorism? For those who take part in politics, fear certainly exists, and the Fascist do not try to conceal that it is their deliberate intention to inspire fear.

FOR METHODIST UNIFICATION Southern Missouri Conference of Southern Church Votes. By the Associated Press. WARREN, Mo., Sept. 25.—The Southern Missouri conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, voted for unification with the Northern church here today. The vote was 128 for and against consolidation.

BANK ORDERED TO MAKE ACCOUNTING ON USURY CHARGE

Federal Judge Davis Rules National City Exacted legal Interest on Loans Disinfectant Firm.

CONCERN NOW IN BANKRUPTCY

Accountant Testifies As Reveals Rate of 8 18 1-2 Per Cent a Year Was Charged on Loans

Federal Judge Davis yesterday ruled that the National City Bank of St. Louis had charged usurious interest in transactions with bankrupt Cremoline Disinfectant Co. prior to bankruptcy and ordered Referee in Bankruptcy to direct all parties to the transaction to make a full accounting to the court.

The opinion was filed by Judge Davis as a result of a petition by Reville Livingston, trustee in bankruptcy for the defaulting concern, to order an order by Referee Judge Davis Feb. 26 last, directing the bank to turn over to the trustee all moneys received by him on account of accounts. There were several hundred such accounts assigned to the bank, aggregating $22,513.33. Judge Davis vacated the order in the Referee and turned the case back to him for an accounting of the interested parties.

The bank, in the early stages of the liquidation, had a personal with the Referee asking for order to turn over the money.

Testimony Taken by Referee

Before making the order Referee took considerable testimony from which he made a statement of facts added. These were in the other that the Cremoline company had deposited with the bank accounts receivable and was credited with 18 per cent of their bank balance, minus 2 per cent which the bank deducted as an interest charge.

An accountant, Charles E. Engle, who had made an audit of the bankrupt's books, testified that he found by computation that the money advanced by the bank to the company had paid interest at the rate of 8 to 11 1/2 per cent per annum.

The banker's contention that they had purchased the accounts outright and not carried them as loans. Judge Davis held otherwise, stating in his opinion that the transactions were loans and that the bank had not represented a company as solvent.

Ruling of Judge Davis

Judge Davis also set forth that these loans were made at varying rates of interest, that while the statute of Missouri renders void a pledge to secure a loan if the usury except against a national bank, the statutes of the United States make the obligations of the bankrupt in this case non-transferable.

Continuing Judge Davis held that the bank is entitled to have the trustee restrained from collecting such accounts as were pledged in money loaned and not repaid, and also entitled to money on such accounts. In the actual case the sum actually loaned to the list of accounts has not been repaid to the bank.

The accounting demanded in the order vacating that of National City Bank. Judge Davis in his opinion, must be ready to account with the opinion of the court.

Penalty for Usury

The penalty prescribed by the federal statute in a case of this kind is forfeiture of the entire principal interest collected and double the amount of such interest within two years.

Trustee Livingston recently filed an appeal against the National City Bank for the recovery of alleged usurious interest in similar transactions with the Cremoline Co.

MILLIONAIRE COY. IS DEAD

Trade Purchase by Prospects Invested in the House

NEW YORK, Sept. 2. — William H. Hargan, "millionaire" who 10 years ago foreman the value of 100,000 shares in the Bronx when he sailed a boat in dock, has gained the title through investment out of savings from a real estate pay. When the subway was properly increased greatly in value and he reaped from the boom. In 1928 he erected a building for 10,000 and 12 years later, valued at 100,000 for the build.

His total wealth was not known, but as long ago as 1918 the city was paying him $28,144 a year for use of some of his plots.
